Mrs. Villie Corizzi

Dedication

A good teacher teaches, an excellent teacher makes learning stimulating. For her excellence as a teacher and her interest in her students, we, the class of 1971, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Villie Corizzi.

A graduate of Montclair State College, Mrs. Corizzi has been teaching at Ramsey High School for 25 years, showing her loyalty to us as our Senior Class advisor, as well as working with the Junior-Senior Prom, the Senior Play and the Chemistry League.

Mrs. Corizzi's students will never forget "Mother" as one of the most refreshing teachers in the high school. Constant good humor and a genuine interest in teaching have made her classes lively and unique. The never-ending antics with fellow science teachers, and the nicknames, such as "sweetie", she gave her students will always be remembered. The quality of the performance she expects of her students reflects her own character and explains the respect she receives in return. We dedicate Nugget 1971 to her as a measure of that respect.

The young men of this land are not, as they are often called, a "lost" race — they are a race that never yet has been discovered. And the whole secret, power, and knowledge of their own discovery is locked within them — they know it, feel it, have the whole thing in them — and they cannot utter it.

Thomas Wolfe

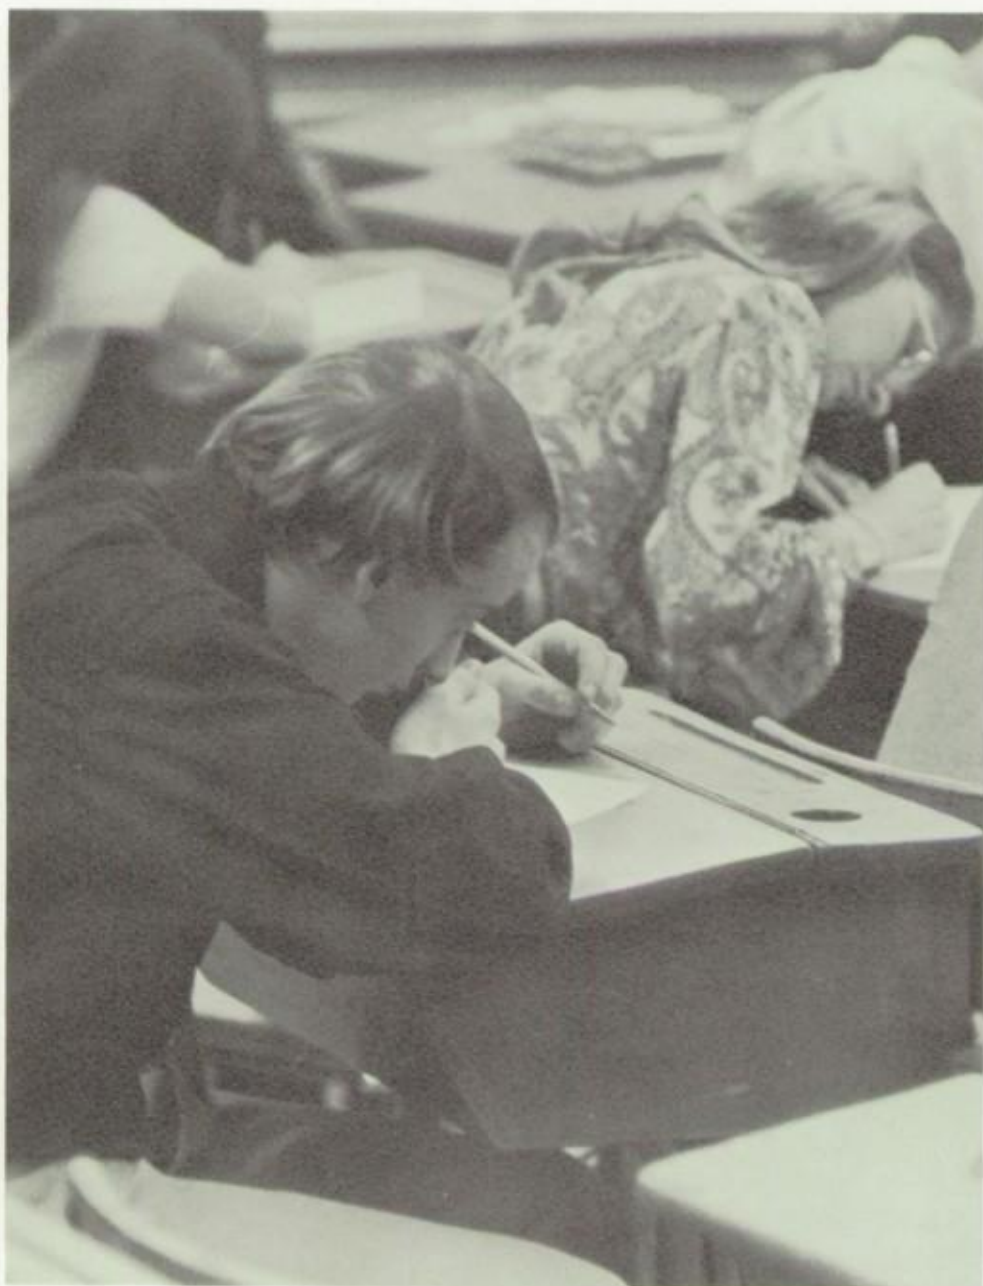

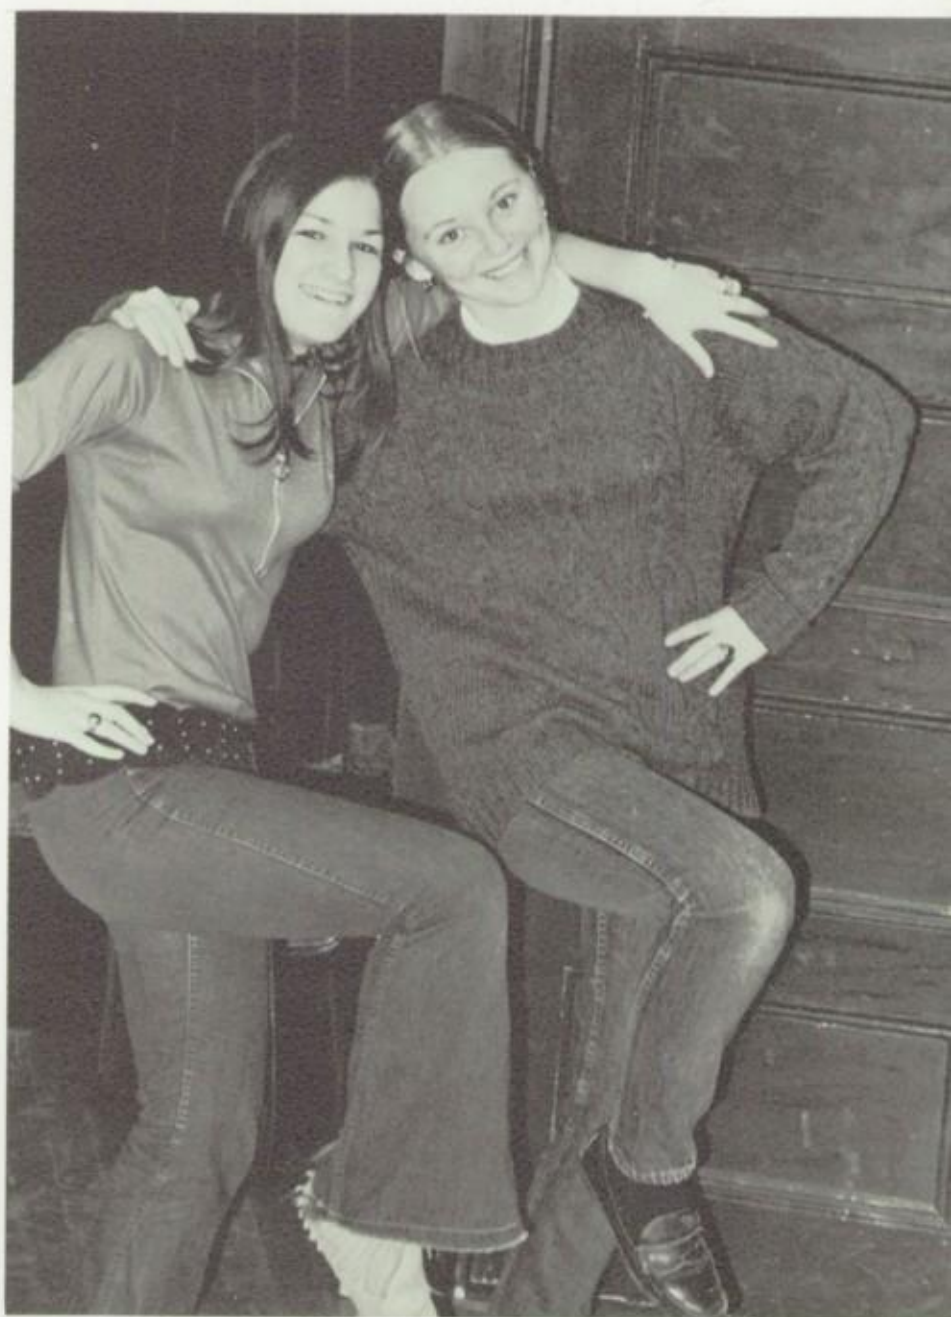

... if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours ...

If you have built castles in the air your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them.

Henry David Thoreau

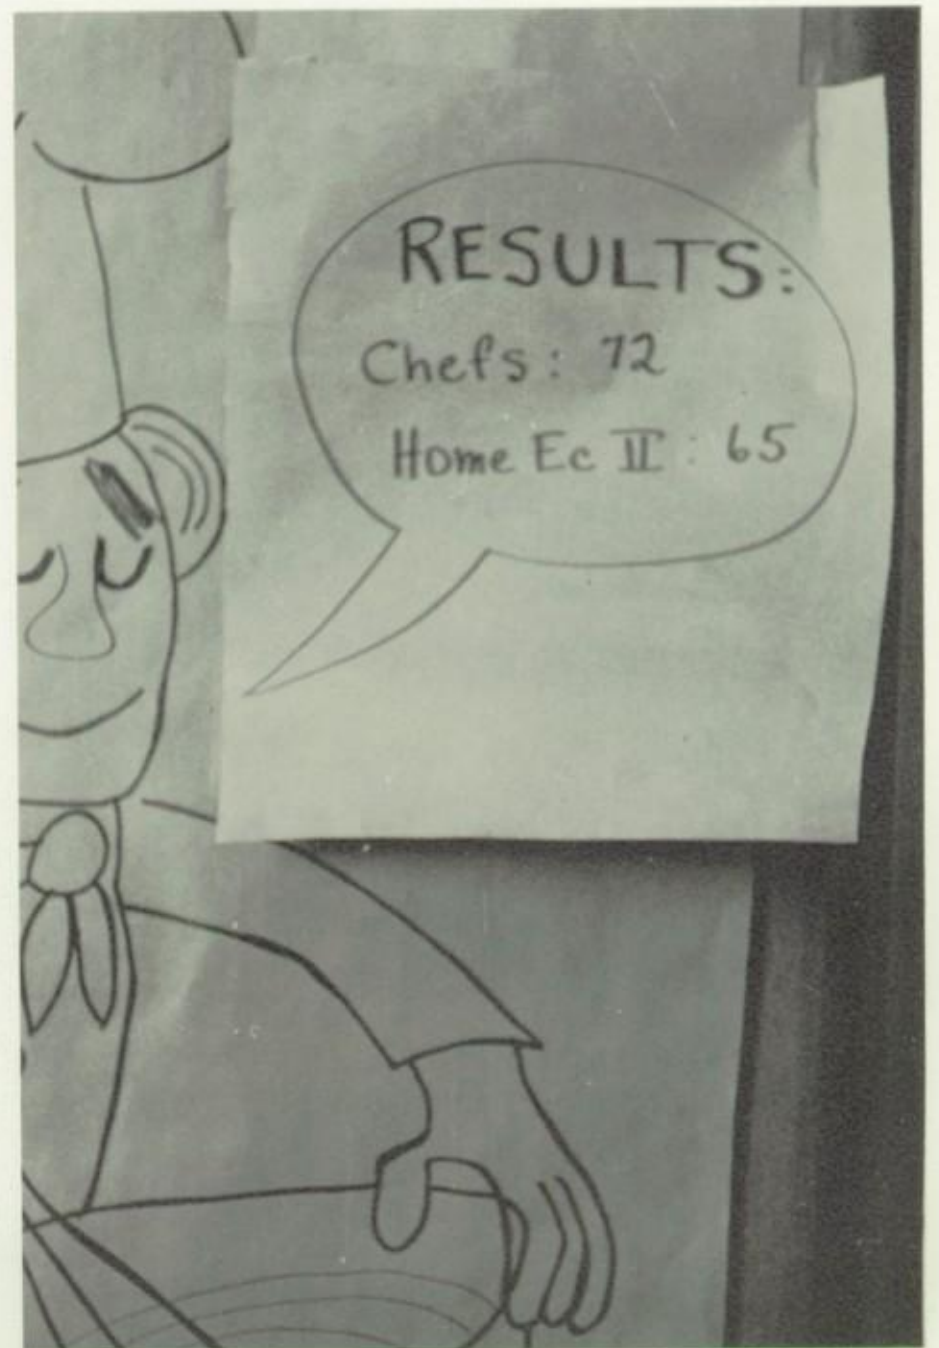

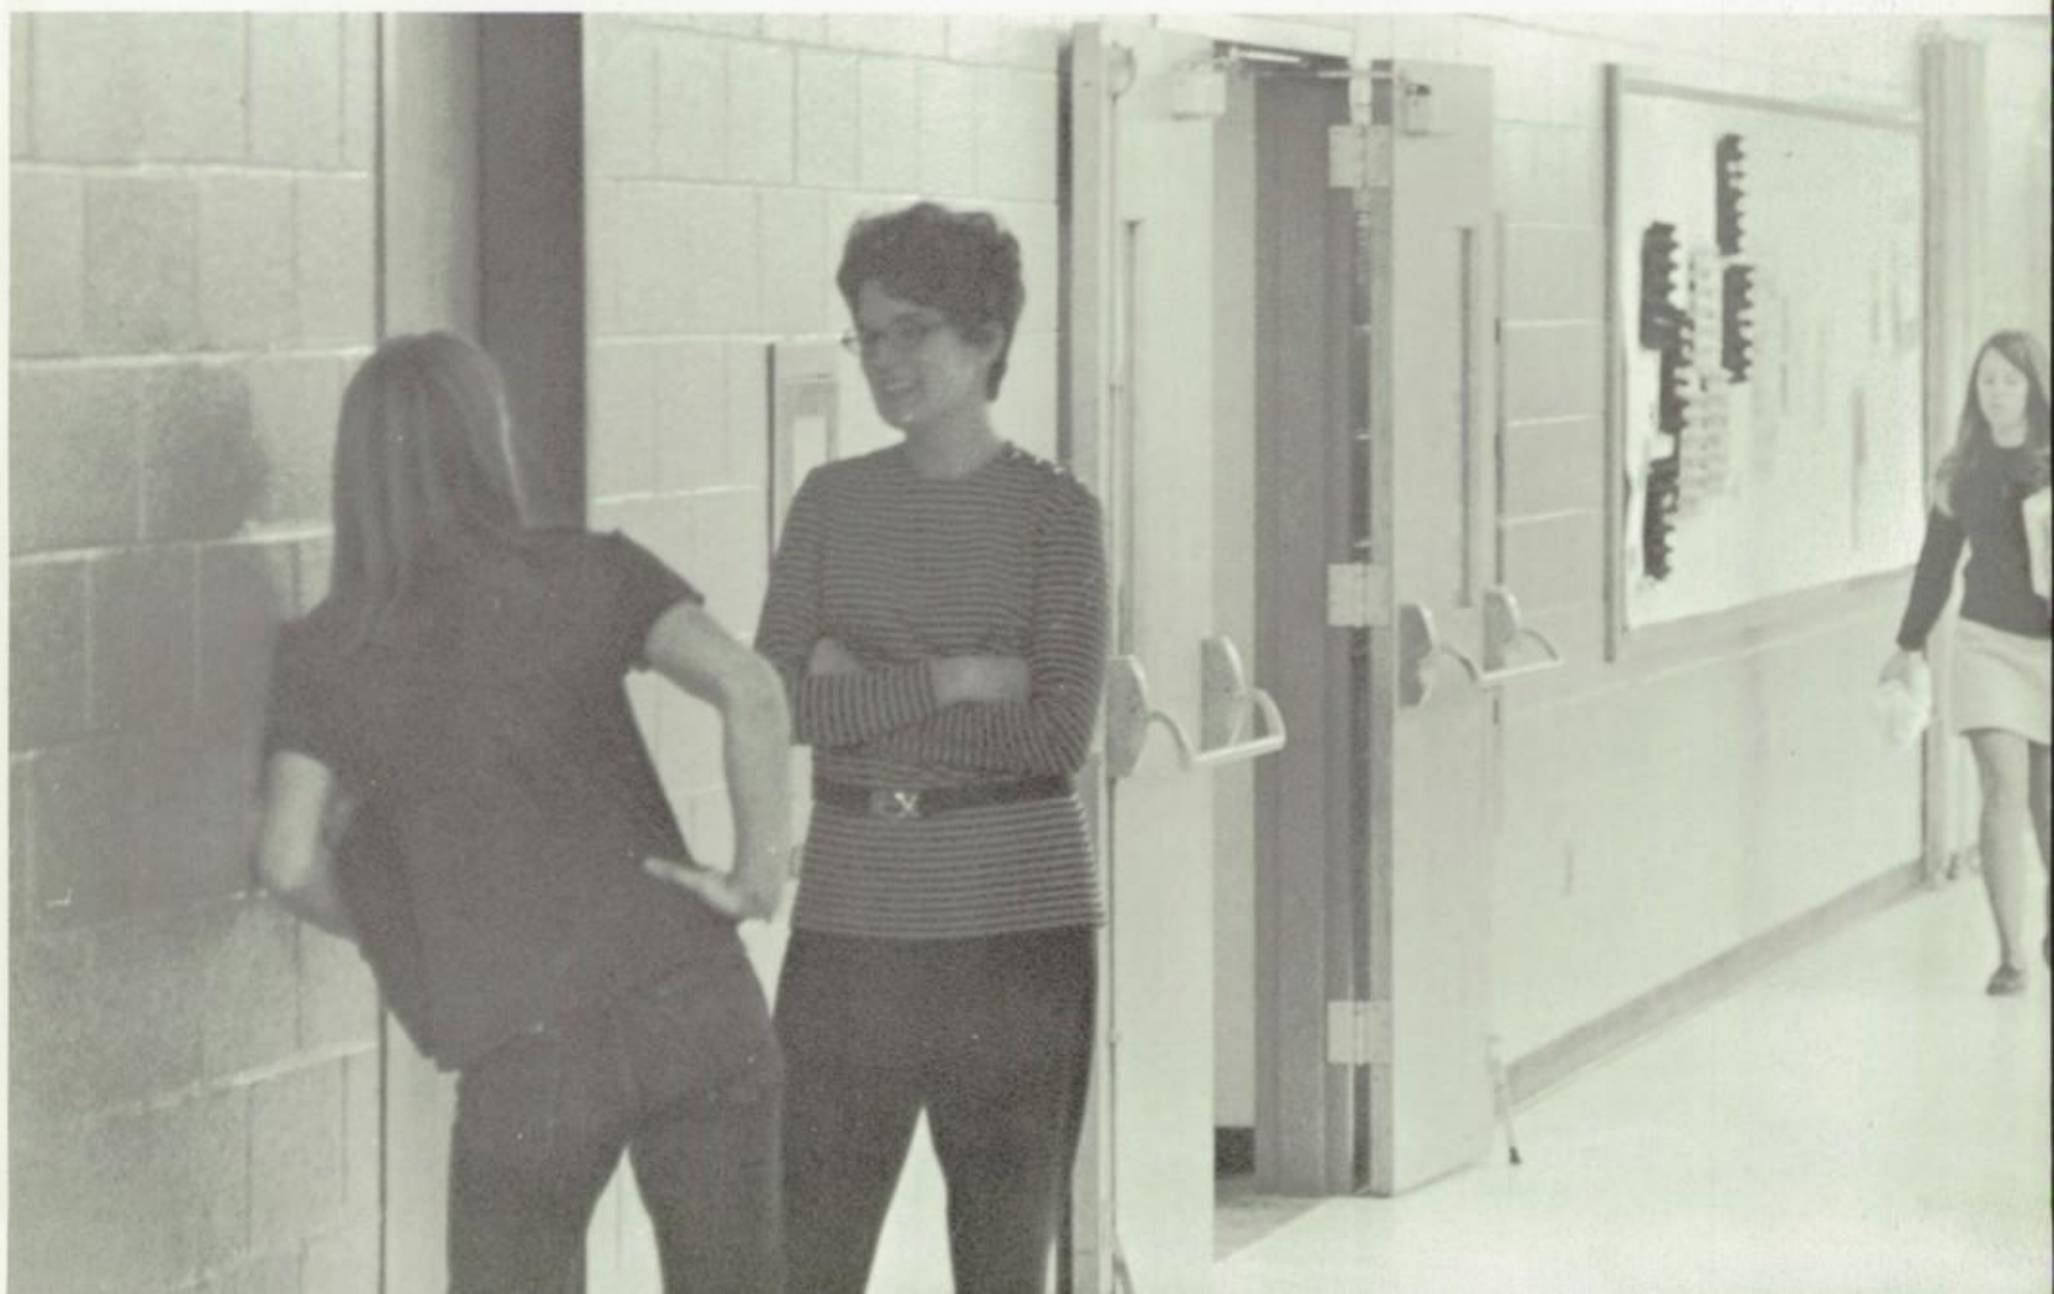

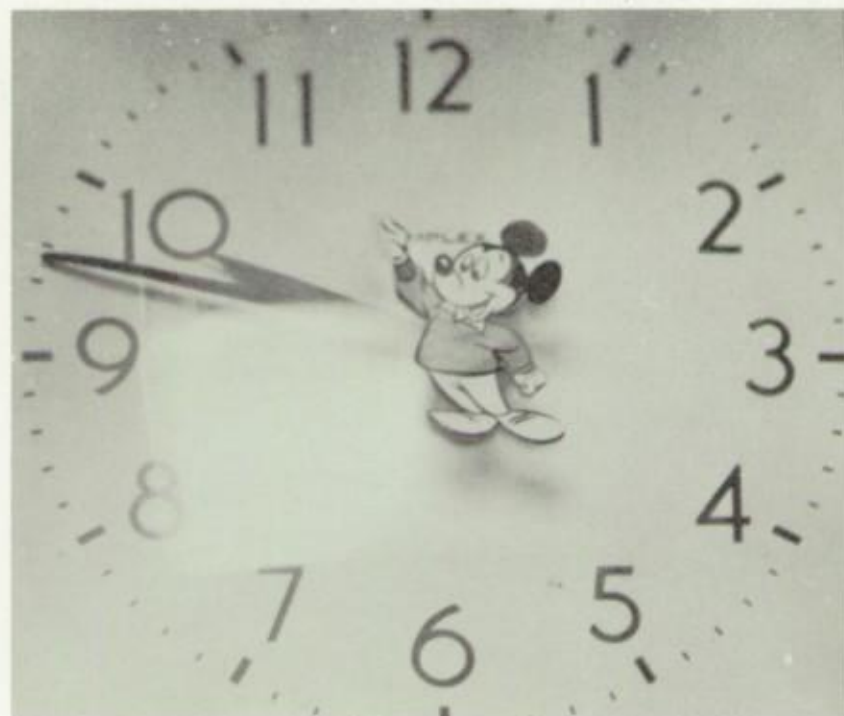

After the heavenly sacred fact of being a child of God, nothing is as great in human existence as the earthly sacred fact of being a brother of men.

Martin Buber

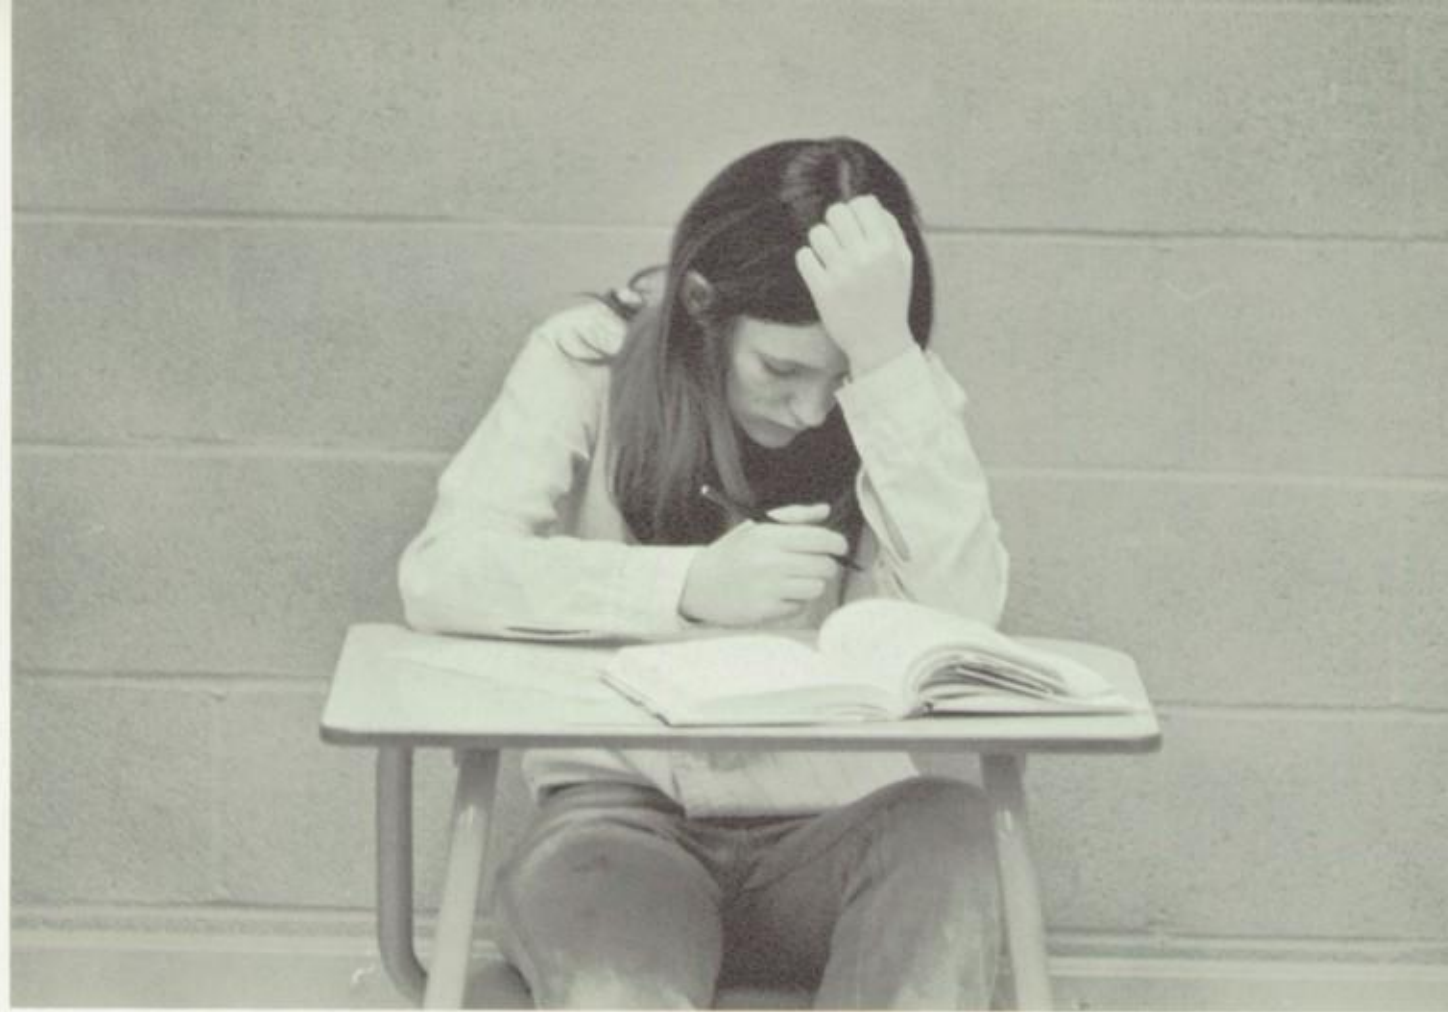

For the times they are a-changing.
Bob Dylan

Two roads diverged in a wood and I—I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

These are the event which have influenced our lives.

These are the teachers who have shaped our minds.

MISS CATHERINE MOWERSON

Miss Mowerson, a member of the faculty for over thirty years, retired last June. A graduate of Syracuse University, she served as chairman of the business department and, in her latter years here, as a guidance counselor. She is presently residing in Cape Cod.

We are the people who have been influenced and shaped by these events and teachers.

Joe Anthony Adamo

One who enjoys music by Grand Funk, Joe also has found favorites in Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, and Mr. Davies. Hoping to graduate and become a draftsman, he also intends to remember 10/4/70 with Babe and 1/70 Gobes.

Susan Joyce Ahlers

With a love of nature and the joy of experiencing life, Sue enjoys easy-going people who don't impose their will on others. J.V. cheerleading, Mrs. Corizzi, Mrs. Plevan, Mr. Grief, friends and 12/21/69 are among the cherished cycles of her memory. Picnicking under blue skies and a peaceful world bring happiness to Sue, as she strives to be herself.

Barbara Ann Alsberg

To live life to the fullest, Barb finds happiness in having fun with her friends and being herself. Striving to help others by becoming a physical therapist, Barb views her world through the music of C.S. and N., Dylan, and Simon and Garfunkle. The shore, sleeping and good times with the gang add to the dimensions of her contentment.

Jeff R. Anderson

Beneath his quiet exterior lies a free and friendly personality. Jeff will always remember 4/12/68, 4/16/68, 12/31/69, Mr. Burr, Mr. Terhune, Warner's Shack and the R.R. tracks. His favorites include Delaney and Bonnie, Led Zeppelin, food, long blond hair, George of the Jungle, Little Rascals and Leonard Cohen. A lonely place in the woods, a girl (A.B.) and time to be alone are enjoyed.

Catherine P. Anthony

Dedicated to what she attempts, Cathy is a hardworking girl whose purpose in life is to have a good time while achieving her goals. Talking freely is most important, as is life itself. She derives happiness from memories of Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Corizzi, and Miss Wershing, hearing Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young, eating lasagna and from being herself.

Sue Deborah Asch

"Sasch", with her glowing smile and sincere interest in people, has undergone motivating experiences at Stag Hill and with We Care. A future Vista worker, she will keep memories of Mr. Cargill, Mr. Robertson, Mr. Henderson, A.H., U.S.Y., F.L. 5, Kansas, 7/25/69, student council, and B.B. Mike as well as a taste for apples, "Old Friends", Simon and Garfunkel, and talking with people.

Barbara Kathryn Baldwin

A true friend and a true person, Barbara is always trying to make the most of life. She enjoys being with people and will never forget Mr. Christiansen's history class, J.D., M.S.U., 8/19/70, Provincetown, or beeping horns. Hoping to enter fashion merchandising, Barbara will be a very successful copywriter.

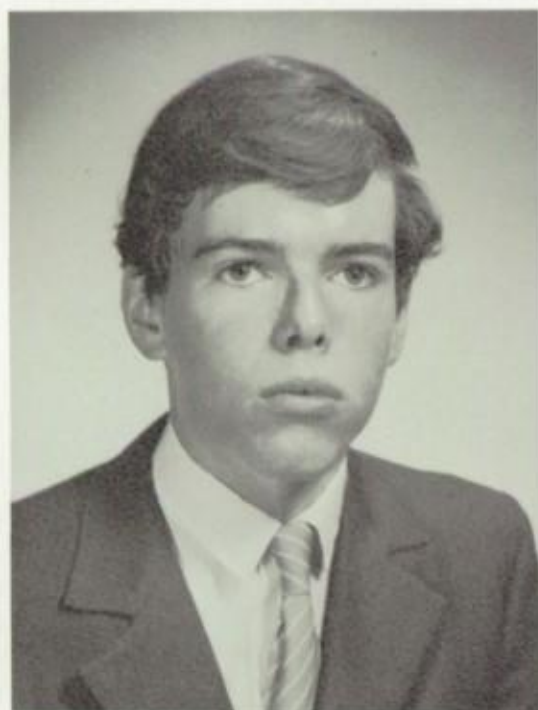

Joanne E. Barnum

Desiring to learn as much as she can in order to help others, Joanne cherishes the warmth and understanding of friendship. Ridgewood with Jean and the summer of 1970 are among her special memories of high school. Happiness for Joanne is being able to spend her summers in Wisconsin and doing the things that bring her pleasure.

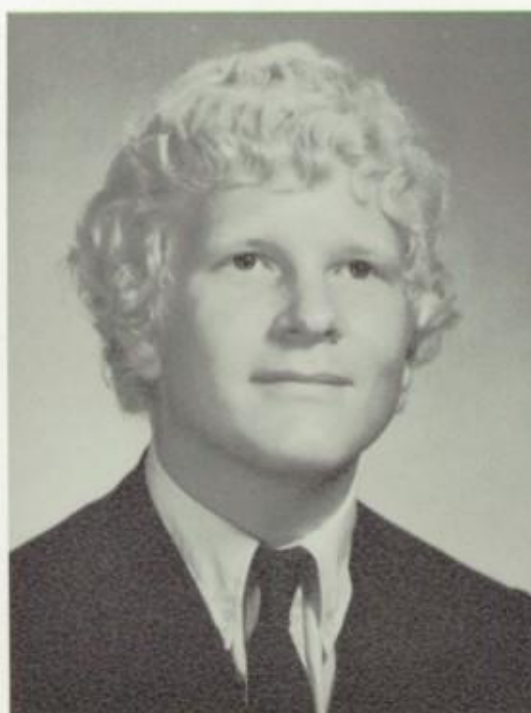

Eddie Bartell

A new face at Ramsey, Eddie has distinguished himself as a true individual. The sea, sunshine, stars, the search for truth, love, and happiness are most important to him. While traveling, Ed hopes to find a purpose in living, for, as he puts it, "my time has come to face the 'real' world".

Randy Bauer

Art and music dominate Randy's life. Both will be important in choosing a career. An art school seems to be his next step in education, possibly with music as a second major. Track and cross-country with Mr. Molino will never be forgotten. Neither Mr. Burr, Miss Foran, nor Mr. Hemphill's Non-Western Civ class will escape his memory.

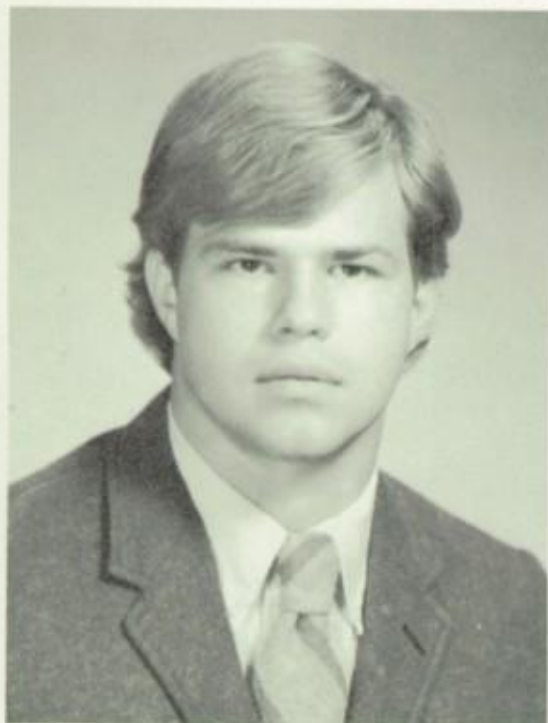

Timothy B. Beach

An artist and athlete, Tim finds the beauty of life in people, music, mountains and winter. Among his favorites are soccer, baseball, Mr. Ponchak, Traffic, Baxter, Tuckerman's Ravine and art. With no apprehension about leaving high school, Tim will resume his education at a college in the northeast, perhaps hoping to revert back to nature.

David R. Beatty

For one who works hard at studying, any accomplishment such as discovering a chess combination or winning a tennis match brings happiness. As Dave progresses to higher education, wishing to complete all he undertakes, fond memories of A.C.E.'s clumsiness and paper airplanes in chem league will accompany his enjoyment in exercising his rights to be an individual.

Frederick John Beddiges III

Buddy's philosophy on life is "Use it before you lose it." He enjoys Liz, green and blue, movies, working on cars, tuna and onion sandwiches, going out, understanding, Grand Funk and Santana. He would like to finish the "Woody" and have a lasting friendship. Buddy's future plans include a career in aeronautics.

Anne M. Beecher

Her big eyes and pretty smile give Anne much charm. The shore, Bunky, Cape Cod, Miss Wershing, Donovan, and all the fun with D.H. and W.E. have found places in the memory of this girl who enjoys skiing as well as meeting people. To be free, finding out who she is and being this person, is her happiness.

Kathleen Bennett

Kathy, who enjoys riding around in the "Camaro" and going to parties, derives great enjoyment from popcorn, Ron, Austin Heals, C.C.R., and the Temptations. Besides Long Beach Island with Ron, she will always remember 7/7/70 and summers '69 and '70. Ron, travel, and learning to drive a stick shift are some of Kathy's aspirations for the future.

Janet C. Bilello

"Short and sweet" is not a cliché when applied to Janet. Valuing the right smile from the right person, as well as her grades, her family, and her Edsel, she enjoys people when they are excited. As she leaves RHS to study art education, Janet will remember Mr. Grief, Mr. Smith, Mr. Christiansen, D.J., football games with the band, and volleyball.

Susanne Billek

Sue finds that having a good outlook on the world is very important. She has many memories of R.H.S. such as G.M., 7/11/70, Mrs. O'Toole, Mrs. O'Neill, and Miss Kruse. As she goes on to college, Sue feels apprehensive about leaving high school.

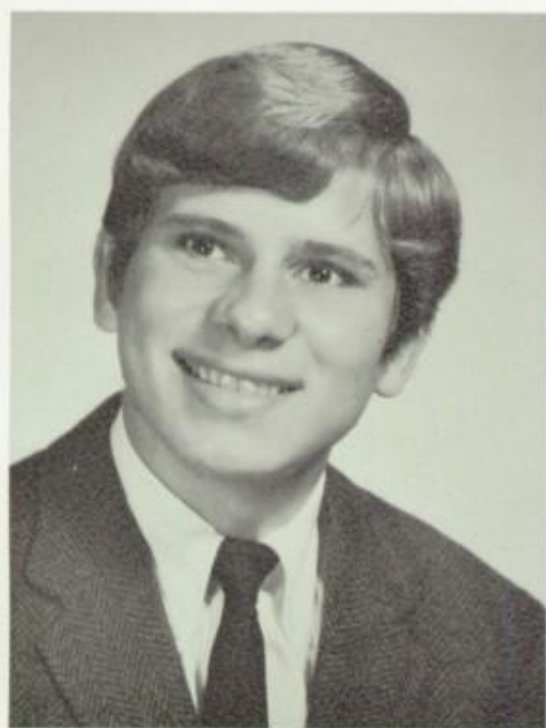

Nancy L. Blowers

Inquisitive, an idealist, and constantly striving for perfection, Nancy enjoys music, learning, and just being able to talk with people. Nance will always remember Mrs. Treskin, Mr. Cargill, Mrs. Corizzi, Mr. Ponchak, Miss Savoca, Freud, German Club, and that special rum cake. She desires to live "im Schwarzwald" and make cuckoo-clocks and steins.

Ann Elizabeth Bojan

A captivating smile, beautiful blond hair, and exceptional twirling ability are all trademarks of Ann. Memories closest to her are of the shore '69 and '70, J.A., 4/70, and football games. Getting up in the morning and a certain person who mimics her are the only things in Ann's life that really bother her. Nursing is planned.

M. Thomas Bolster

Tom likes to be happy; this is evident to everyone who knows this fun-loving athlete. If not making other people happy, he is probably participating in a baseball or football game. When Tom goes off to college, memories of 11/26/70, Mr. Reid, Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Depuyt, ski trips, and his senior year will always be with him.

Peter W. Bossart

If you find someone asleep under the bandstand, it is Pete, dreaming of D.J., Rat, 8/30/69, 2/4/70, or of walking over the bridge. Hoping to live a satisfying life with many benefits, having good times with good people, Peter also will value his "green stuff" and prestige.

Deborah A. Brennan

The love of friends, family, and people with pleasing personalities are important to Debbie. Traveling in the future, she will remember Mr. Ponchak, "Dil", Ratso, Rizzo, 3/4/70, Paul, blue roses, and talks with Keith, as she continues to feel "too soon tomorrow becomes yesterday".

Barbara J. Brinkman

Barbara, believing we are molded by those who love us or by those who refuse to love us, finds happiness in having someone who cares. As she teaches nursing, thoughts of Mr. Ponchak, Mrs. Van Dyke, 4/4/70, "The Who" with Karen, and Cape Cod will flash into her memories along with those special ones of her cat.

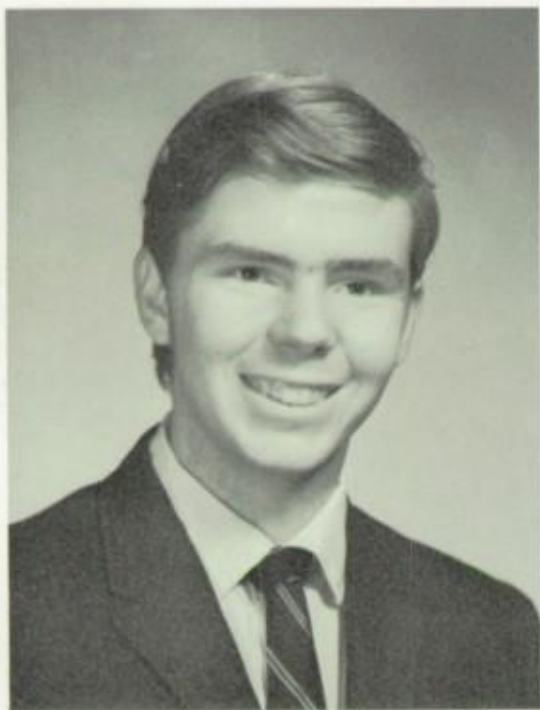

Susan Elizabeth Brown

The love of the outdoors is much a part of Sue, her camping trip West, the Grand Canyon, and the lake having increased her attachment to the land. Rosie and Carol as well as her happiness in being with friends will be remembered. College is planned, yet don't be surprised to see Sue out in the middle of nowhere as a Peace Corps volunteer.

Susan Brown

Artistic and fun-loving, Sue finds happiness in almost everything but especially art. Whirling in her kaleidoscope of memories are Mr. DePuyt and Driver's Ed, Mr. Cargill, summers and Sandy and Joe. Getting to know people and being able to laugh with them is another means through which Sue's life holds importance.

William Daniel Brown

In years to come, Bill will be one of the fastest humans, moving at 640 m.p.h., yet he is no track star. Rather, he plans to be an airplane pilot. During his Air Force career, he may pass over RHS. If so, memories of Mr. Dayner, baseball '70, and Driver's Ed will return, no matter how high his plane is.

Jeanne Buscher

When "Bush" returned to Ramsey, she brought with her a ray of sunshine which was welcomed back. Her long list of favorites and memories of high school includes Canada, pretzels, skiing, "People", James Taylor, the shore with P.H.S., ski adventures with P.C. and S.K., 8/26/68, Miss Kruse, Mr. Thomas, and reminiscing. College is in her future.

Michael Bussell

At the very center of this basketball player's life is sure to be at least one beautiful woman. He lives to enjoy each day and night, especially by playing hoops and surfing. Mike's best memories of RHS are those of Sheila, Anne, and Lisa. Ten years from now go to California to catch him riding the wild surf.

Ann Cadillac

Individuality and a great sense of humor describe "Annie", who enjoys rainy days, "Both Sides Now", "Fire and Rain", sewing, and doing whatever comes to mind. Memories of Miss Kruse, Mrs. Treskin, cheerleading, her sophomore year, and Jim will remain with her as she plans a future including college, airlines, and Switzerland, as well as becoming famous.

Kevin Cassidy

All cherish Kevin for his unhampered moments of excitement resulting from his serious, unceasing devotion to a thought, study, or belief. His talents range from journalistic writing for the Ram and Nugget to arguing with Mike, whose lasting friendship, like each one, is valued. Seeking happiness at Notre Dame, Kevin will remember Mr. Burr, Mrs. O'Neill, the senior play, Randy, Mrs. Boyd, and Mr. Rudin.

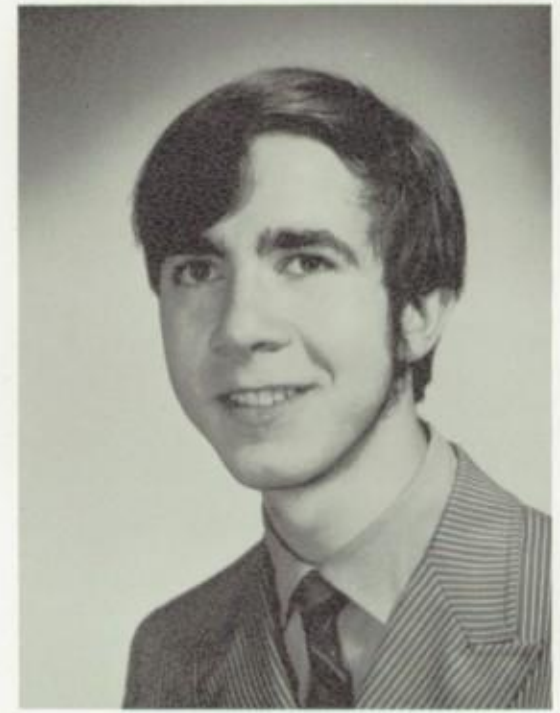

Joanne Calderone

Although Joanne is petite, one is always aware of her presence. Spending times of happiness with Dave, Mustangs, Ten Years After, Sesame Street, the shore, sleeping, eating, and spaghetti compose the column of importance in her life. Memories of Miss Miller, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. O'Toole, 2/2/70, 4/4/70 and the second floor girls' room will follow her into college.

Lauren Charkowski

Cheerful Lauren lives one day at a time, making each day count. Her goal is a happy, successful life, seeing and making others happy. A secretarial job with night college is planned, as she will carry memories of fourth lunch, a broken condenser, and of the shore with her, as well as loves for Christmas, pickles, watermelon and Angus.

Dean Cartier

Remember how short Dean is? Well, someday he may be over 28,000 feet tall. Yes, this concerned ecologist wants to climb Mt. Everest. A patient of "Doc Gross Out's grossatology", he enjoys books, hiking, and friends. Dean hopes to do something benefitting mankind and securing a place for himself in history, that is, if he's not discovering a great cave-in.

Mary France Christen

Striving to be at peace with her conscience, Mary aspires to help people and gain their friendship. She hopes to work in medicine; now she derives happiness from her memories of Mr. Ponchak, Miss Kronke, 9/2/70, 9/3/70, 9/10/70 and of having been able to spend a year at Ramsey High School. Mary finds added contentment in just being with other people.

Patricia Louise Christie

Patti's unique personality has won her many friends. These she will remember, as well as their fun times together, summer '68, Canada, 5/22/70, 11/22/70, one particular friend, "the kid". Shore trips, R.H.S., and a special place in the sun. In ten certain people she finds love, laughter, happiness, sincerity, and kindness.

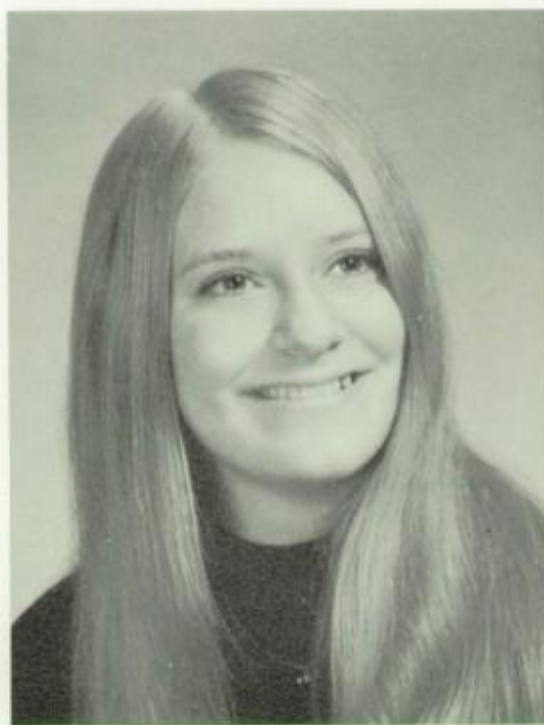

Linda Ann Clark

While "Lil" is short, she has big hopes of doing everything in the future. As she explores the world, she will always remember 10/24/67, 5/9/69, Europe, left over laughs, and times with M.P.B. Her likes will continue to be dust, 3, H.A.J.A.B. and peanut butter.

Jeff S. Clausen

Mix up water, snow, mountains, a little of Laurel and Hardy, and a touch of Errol Flynn: that's Jeff. In the future, he will travel in a kayak to the Himalayas, climb Mt. Everest, and ski back down. Jeff will always remember times at Mike's house, May, and summer 1970; that is, if the monsoon doesn't get to him.

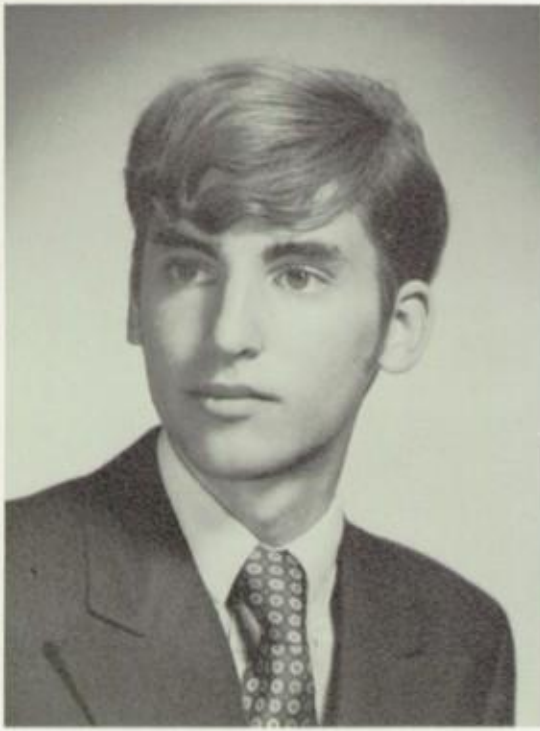

Terri L. Coleman

Terri, wishing she could become less shy, likes a sense of humor and a nutty personality. Good relationships with her friends are most important, as she lives to have fun. Mr. Ufferfilge's class with K.A.F. and the D.B.O.D. awards, the triangle, and 7th period study left imprints on Terri, who finds happiness driving around on a clear autumn day.

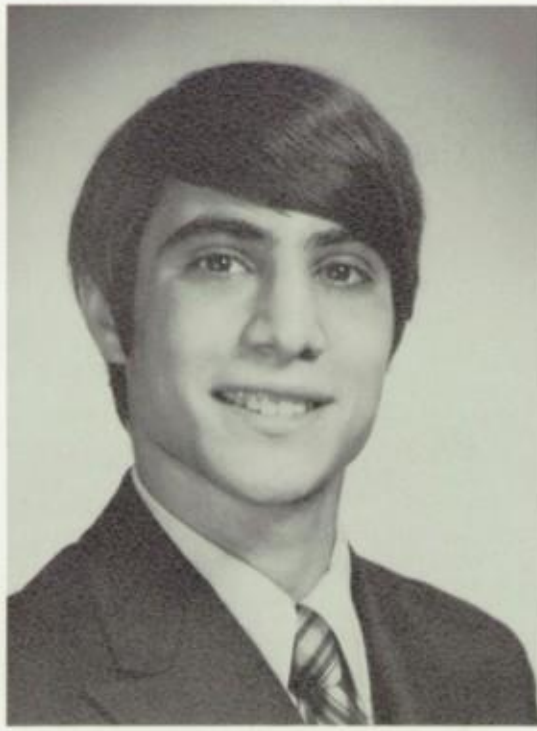

Roseannette C. Colletta

To Roseannette, happiness is a flat Pepsi and a bowl of Sugar Frosted Flakes. Comical in her own way, she enjoys others who can laugh, joke, and enjoy life in this way. One whose memories vary from frying erasers to Mr. Ufferfilge, Mr. Ponchak, and summer '70, she wishes that as she develops a career in art, she will become less gullible.

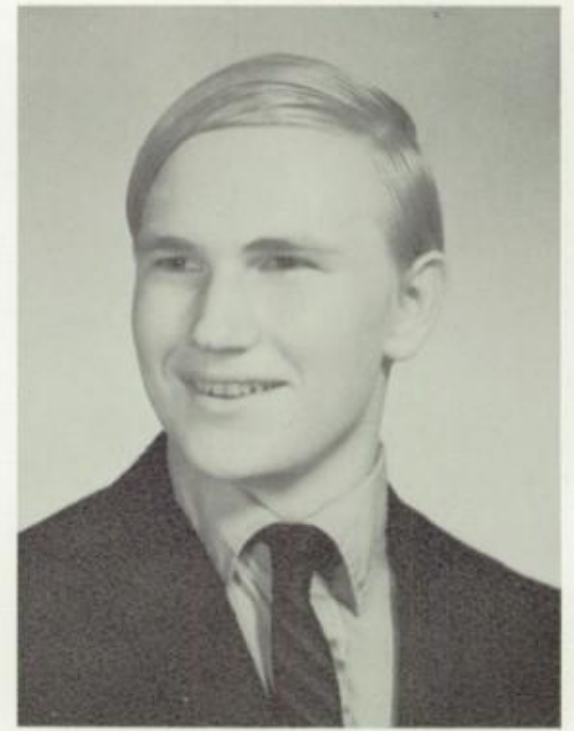

Frank Comstock

To Frank, happiness is a feeling of accomplishment and satisfaction in anything he does. Most important to him are racing, happiness, "real" people, and working. He will always remember Mr. Burr, Mr. Hemphill, The Ram, G.U.Y., Lyn, "Gidge", and Kathy. After graduation Frank plans to work before going to college.

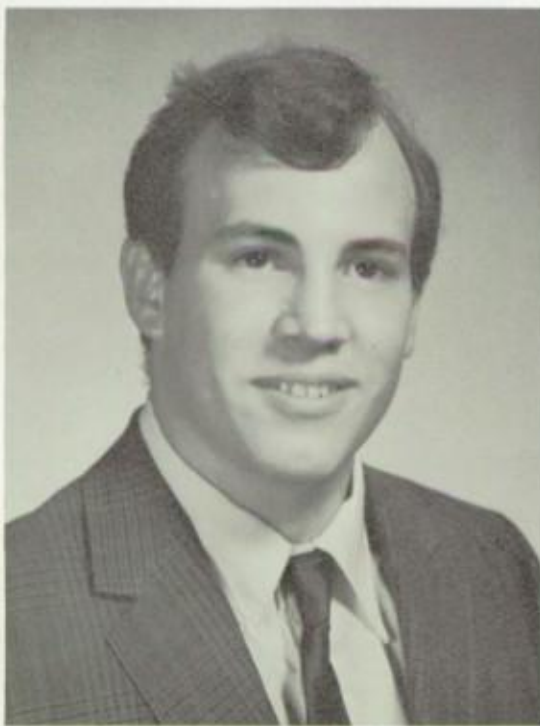

Richard W. Corso

Dynamic, friendly, and with a zeal for life, Rick enjoys being able to identify with others and share their experiences. Always remembered will be his trips to Hawaii and California, the junior and senior plays, "WOW", and Mrs. Van Dyke. Happiness is love, health, friendship and being able to enjoy everything worth doing.

Robert Crow

"While living, live a little," is a saying that best describes Robert's outlook on life. Friendliness and doing things with people he likes are most important to Bob, who will always remember football games, homework, and Driver's Education. Robert plans to carry on his education at the R.C.A. Institute.

Tom Crowell

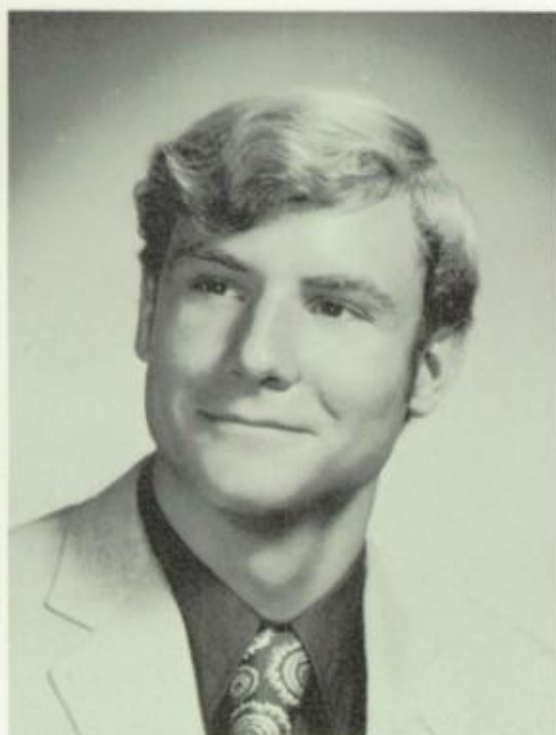

Scuba diving is now a hobby with Tom, but it probably will develop into a career. The Navy appears to be the basis for using his skill and furthering his education. Tom will always remember Mr. Davies' mechanical drawing classes as well as the excitement of wrestling for Ramsey High.

Glenn V. Dailey

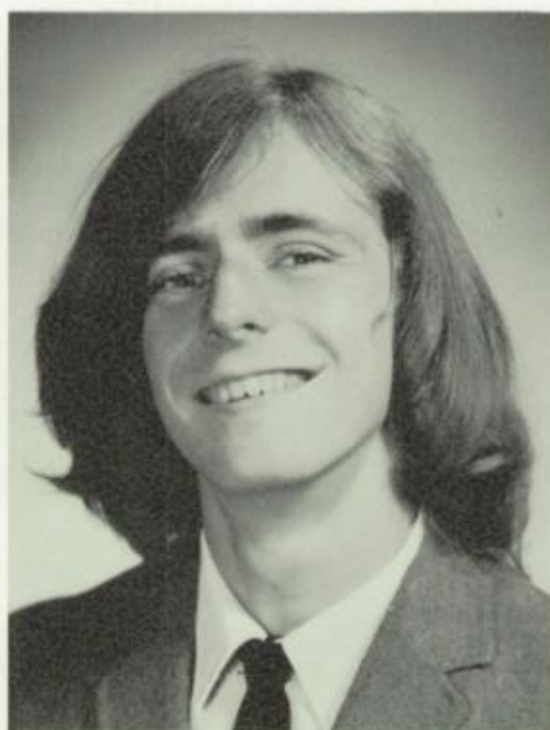

Glenn has a humorous, half-sarcastic remark for every situation, showing us some of the brighter side of life. He enjoys watching people, and he hopes to drive a Mustang with a tape deck. He will remember C., S., N., & Y.; T.Y.A., The Fillmore, C.K., R.K.'s parties, picnics, upstate, Little's pig machine, Dave's racing car, and the shore.

Gary John Davies

Gary's smiling face has added much to life at R.H.S. An independent individual, always striving to think for himself, he seeks trust from others, for this, along with 1930 Model A. Fords, is his happiness. Continuing to enjoy people who are themselves, as he studies electrical engineering he will remember his junior year, as well as Mrs. O'Toole and Mr. Mura's study.

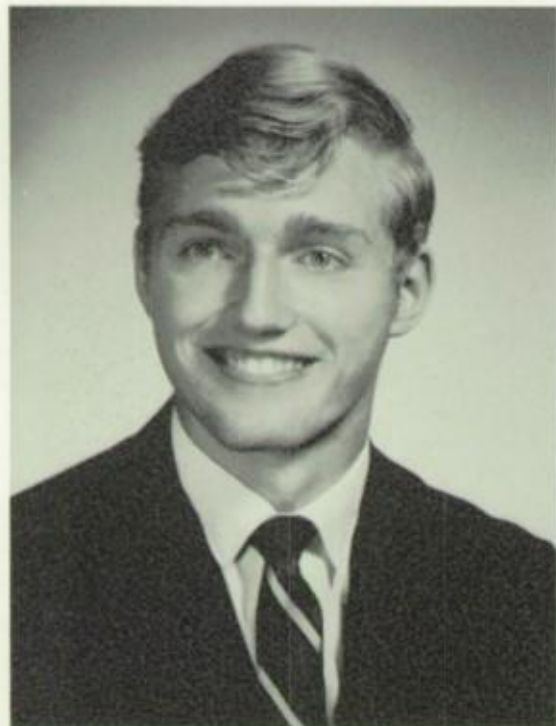

Richard M. DeGall

Rich is by no means a lonely long distance runner, for just about everyone is his friend. It is in having true friends to whom he can turn and in knowing that one special person understands him that he finds genuine happiness. As he continues running in college, memories of "The Family", backrubs, and Mr. Molino will accompany his attempts to be all he can to others.

Mona Marie Dengg

Never-ending enthusiasm and cheer are rare qualities which Mona possesses. She is especially cheerful when in the presence of Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Winslow, K.M., the music of C.S.N. & Y., or food. A good sense of humor, open mindedness and sincerity are qualities she looks for in people. In the future she plans college study to become a dietitian.

John J. Dillon

Fast legs distinguish this track man who will always remember his first varsity point. If not seeking better times under his favorite mentors, Mr. Ufferfilge and Mr. Molino, he is seeking happiness by making new friends or by sleeping late after a hard work-out, always dreaming of chemistry with Mrs. Corizzi or the time of 3:34.7.

Nancy Dobbs

Peaceful and understanding, Nancy lives a life whose dimensions include the pleasures of color, music, and all that is beautiful. Krissmiss times and No. 1-10 are her memories, while R. and B., Dylan, Lennon, sleeping, eating, pu, cookies, and "Hey Jude" compose her likes.

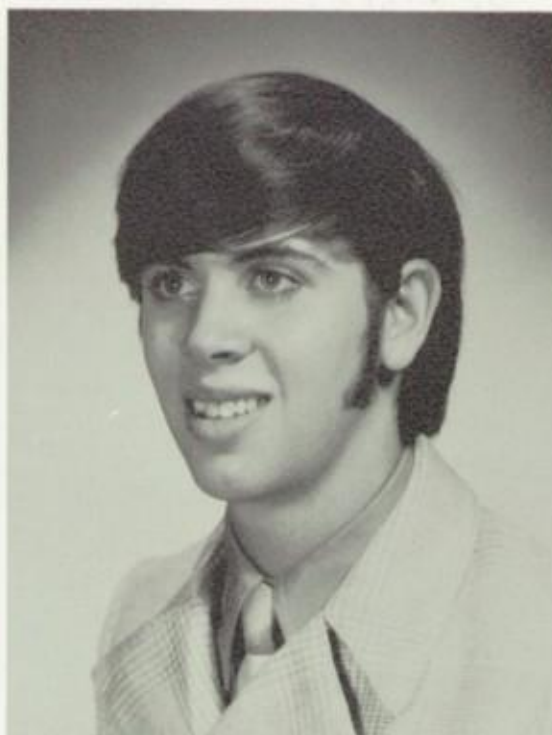

Debi L. Dobias

"H.B." is so happy, bubbly, and energetic that she amazes many people. A warm person who loves being alive, Debi will most remember colorguard, New Year's Eve '69, Mr. Robertson, Miss Derby, Mr. Note, and ski trips. Hendrix, C., S., N. and Y., James Taylor, and summer are favorites. Feeling sad about leaving RHS, Debi plans college and a career in the airlines.

Mary Dolan

Mary is a quiet girl who finds happiness in simply being with people she likes. Mrs. O'Toole, business English, 11/12/70, 2/16/70, J.B., and "To Love Somebody" are high on her list of memories. As she confidently leaves R.H.S., she wants to work and be happy.

David P. Donnelly

Taking life as it comes and enjoying himself, Dave has found happiness with Joanne, pizza, 2nd period study, Mrs. O'Toole, and Mr. Ponchak. As he works toward his future goals, including marriage, technical school, and a long trip to nowhere, he will remember 2/2/70, 4/4/70, and the 3rd floor boy's room.

Timothy A. Doyle

Helping others and making people happy are noble qualities which Tim possesses. This diligent worker looks for the humor, honesty, and understanding in people. Whether his future is in teaching or in the Air Force, he will look back on high school with memories of German club, Mr. Hemphill, Mrs. Treskin, and Mr. Behrmann.

Larry DuLittle

Striving to become a golf pro, Larry enjoys talking with natural people. Always competitive, his memories include edging Waldwick 1-0 in soccer, basketball, Mr. Murray, Rochester, and Flip Wilson. Happiness for him can be found in sleeping or in eating roast beef and mashed potatoes.

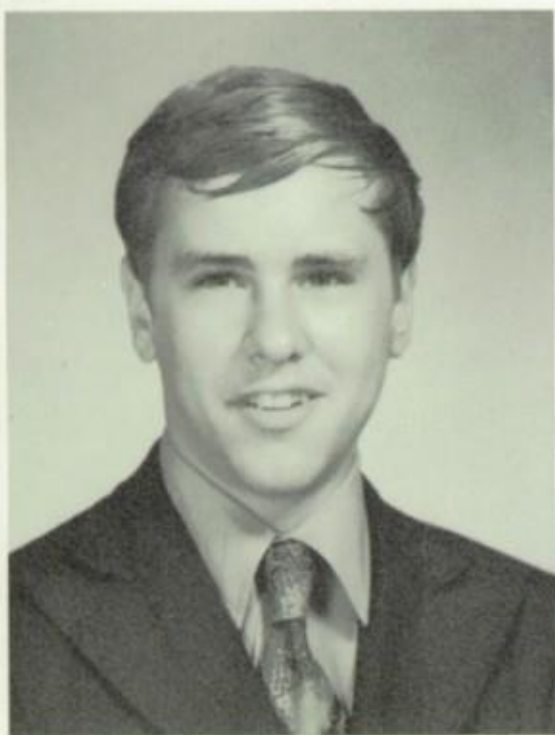

Eileen R. Dunn

With a warm smile, Eileen enjoys meeting nice people and making friends. Never will she forget meeting W.R. in '69 or getting in trouble for her short dresses. After high school her plans include travel, marriage, and a little bit of everything.

Susan Audrey Dunn

Feeling that friends, her family, and a happy future are most important, Sue enjoys sincere personalities. Being confused with Eileen and getting caught cutting are two things she will always remember. Her happiness is being with Peter while her future includes Katherine Gibbs, travel, and marriage.

Rich Edling

Valuing friends and experiences, Rich hopes to develop increased individuality, the characteristic he enjoys most about people. To live life as it is today is his daily goal, as is acquiring happiness through helping others and doing his natural thing. While walking confidently onward, memories of A.V.A. study, Ernie's math class, and Mrs. Corizzi will follow him.

Gitte Elgaard

Viewed through her rose-colored glasses, Gitte's world is full of love, music, kittens, painting, windy days, and Stevie. She's always chasing rainbows, rolling down hills, bumping into people, and knocking over paint pots along the way. She could do without spats, cliques, splinters, and being clumsy, and looks forward to Art School and making "him" a good wife.

Wendy C. Erickson

A quiet, friendly girl, Wendy enjoys skiing and being with friends. Her happiness is being 18, having a steady boyfriend, and being with G.H. She will always remember the shore with A.B. in '69 and '70 and good times at D.H.'s. Plans for the future include college, nursing, loving and being loved.

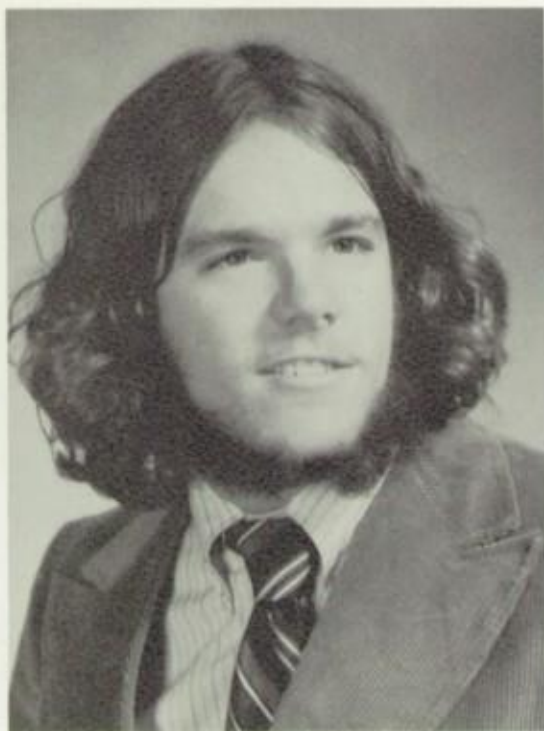

Andrew J. Erny

When you find Andy playing pool, you know that he is enjoying himself. Sometimes referred to as "Bubs", he will always have memories of Mrs. O'Toole, Lee Michaels, and Moratorium Day with J.M., even as he is flying first class to California on American Airlines.

Peter Ferguson

Pete looks for as much enjoyment from life as possible. Liking Jethro Tull, "With You There to Help Me", and V.N.G., he will always remember the feeling of pleasure he experienced during summer vacations. The bike trip will remain a source of his happiness as he moves on to college.

Scott William Ferres

Scott has come a long way in his four years at R.H.S. Beneath his self-contained exterior is a humorous personality full of life. His favorites include dungarees, Joe Cocker, motorcycles, old things and skiing. Miss Kruse, MSG, the cliffs, the Ramapos, and the lagoon are among his many happy memories. Scott's unique artistic ability will undoubtedly bring him future success.

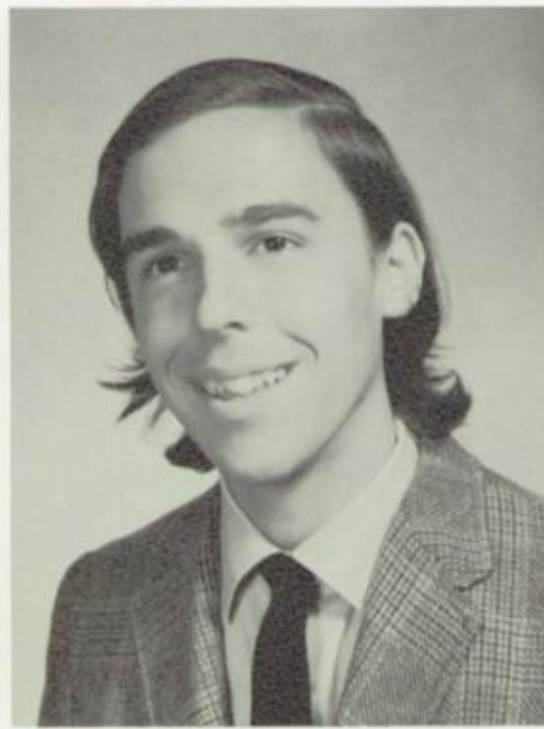

Gene Ferri

A sports enthusiast, Gene values people and their sense of humor. Basketball games and golf tournaments have been much a part of his high school career, as have been Debbie, Sue, Shirley, Katie, and John. In college he plans to have more enjoyment than he found in R.H.S. by being less intent on his marks.

Laura P. Fillmore

Infinitely thoughtful, enthusiastic, creative, and alive, Laura has been missed by RHS. She has found her heaven, however, in Austria, where she is learning to savor each minute she has by laughing, loving, and experiencing all she can. Laura loves Vienna, Austria, and a "humor of prominent people." Among other things, she plans to see the whole world some day.

Robert B. Finch

His wit and ability to laugh at almost anything combine to make an easygoing personality. On a typical Ramsey weekend, Bob is easily spotted driving his "orange wagon" around town. In more silent moments, he eases his mind by listening to CSN&Y and James Taylor.

Jeanne M. Fitzpatrick

"Fitz" is one who enjoys being surprised, be it by a long distance phone call, a letter, or whatever. Memories of times during high school include summer '69, 2/21/69, studying for a Chem. test, newspaper rain hats, Hunter, and "Carmine", as well as "her sidekick". As she enters college and nursing, Donni, summers, and the shore will always remain important.

Shirley Fix

A quiet, friendly girl with a wide smile, Shirley desires to become less shy, more talkative. She is a reliable person who accomplishes what she undertakes, performing each of her tasks well. Rapping and being with people she likes are sources of Shirley's enjoyment and happiness, as have been soccer games and math with Miss Wawrzossek.

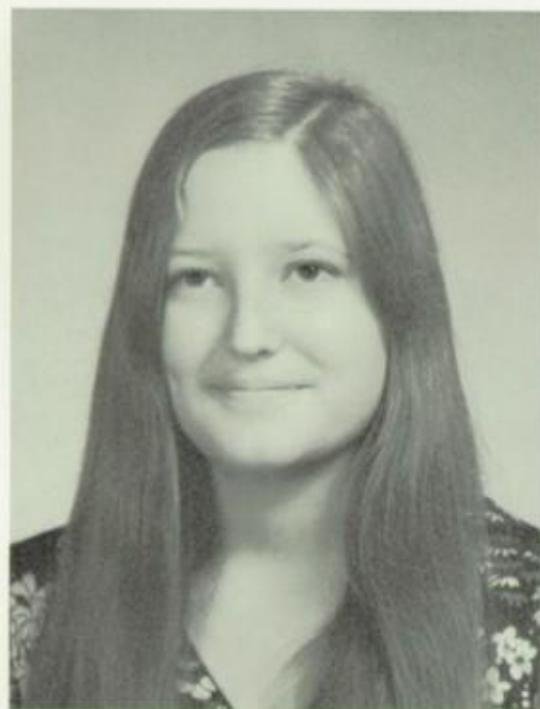

Susan Kay Fix

Sue shows her enjoyment of life with her sweet smile and lively personality. She has many fond memories of color guard, chem. class, summer '69, and Miss Wawrzossek. Sue's love of life and simple things will make her a perfect nurse.

Bradley F. Flink

To Brad, an outstanding football player with a great sense of humor, happiness is leaving for the summer. Most important to him are music, friends, and being outside. After leaving high school he will continue on to college where memories of sports, and getting to know Newark, Brooklyn, and the Bronx will stay with him.

Helen G. Foresté

Outgoing, and with a love for music, theater, and animals, "Hel" hopes to save the animals of the world, making music for them like Orpheus. "La petite Moo" remembers Mrs. Corizzi, Mr. Cargill, and all the teachers she's ever had. Happiness varies from jello with chocolate-chip-mint ice cream on top to a warm puppy with a cold, wet, nose.

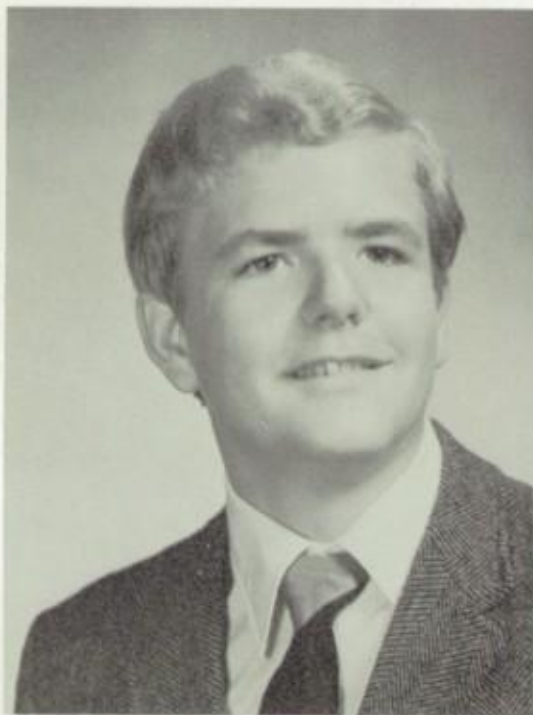

Shirley Jo Frederick

With laughter constantly on her lips, Shirley believes "laughter makes things go better". Continuing to smile, she will remember J.A.O., Mot Snavé, Mr. Burr, chem. labs, Miss Ringle, and talks with M.H. Attending college to become a pharmacist is her future.

Karen Anne French

Ebullient and athletic, Karen is most happy reading a fabulous book, walking on an autumn day, or hearing laughter rebound. Mr. Ufferfilge, 6th period biology, and Wick have all left imprints on this vivacious girl, to whom people - their honesty and involvement - are most important. Karen herself wishes to contribute anything she can to make a better life.

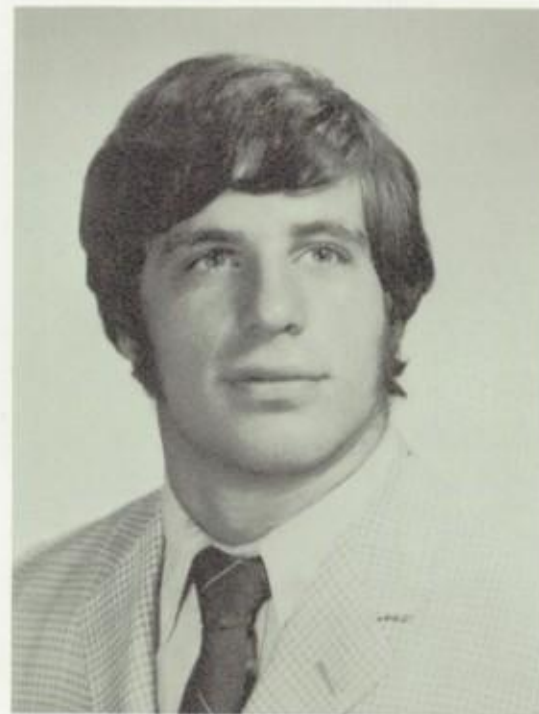

Jim A. Fugelsoe

People and their special problems are what Jim enjoys. Among his many memories are L.M., D.C., C.G., N.B., Mrs. O'Toole, 2/7, and 4/4. True happiness to Jim would be having a 1929 Nash that runs.

Shirley J. Gannon

Love and happiness find their reflection in Shirley, Mrs. Grossman, Miss Kruse, Miss Miller, J.T., C.G., L.T., and 2/29/67 are remembered by Mutt, whose future includes marrying Brian, having two children, and living at the shore. Happiness is security, having a car, and Brian.

Bruce W. Gebhardt

"Flashback, the boy wonder", desires to learn how to talk. His memories include times out of school, "clear on the right", Brothers 11, and the little book, while he likes football, 36, G.M., and Mr. Reid. In the future Bruce hopes to play football and become a gym teacher.

Maria Geppert

With long, golden blond hair and horn-rimmed glasses, Maria is shy yet full of life and interest in other people. She cherishes the independence of the individual and the understanding and love of others. Depth in life and in people is important, just as happiness stems from seeing a "Melanie" concert.

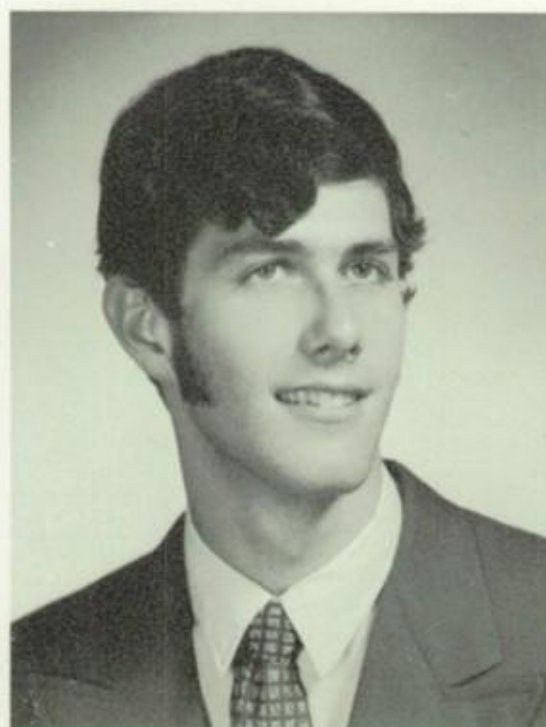

Lisa Ann Getlin

With an enchanting personality and delightful wit, Lisa values laughing, happiness, and being respected as she lives, feeling her life is only what she makes of it. Mr. Ponchak, Miss Miller, "Here, Here and Everywhere," James Taylor, and cheering have become parts of this life, as have talks with Shelia, Canada, tunafish, and Steve. College and travel will be her future expanding forces.

Barbara Lynn Gillham

Barbara, the girl with the endless long brown hair, radiates sunshine and happiness. She is a person to whom love, friends, and compassion are most important; a person for whom happiness is being with someone she loves. In high school her enjoyment has come through D.H., soccer games, July 9, 1969, New Years Eve '69, Mrs. Corizzi, Mr. Ufferfilge, and from the laughter of others.

James L. Gingery

Jim has served his school well, being especially active in G.U.Y. and A.V.A. When reflecting on his four years at Ramsey, he will most remember Mrs. O'Toole, A.V.A., retreats, 8/28, 11/7, N.E.B., "mind-reading J.A.F.", band camp, and lunches. He enjoys people for their assortment of problems. Being able to help others brings him happiness.

Gary G. Glasgow

To know Gary is to fully appreciate his subtle sense of humor. Known as "The Mad Scott," he finds happiness in getting the perfect nutty buddy. Feeling relieved about graduating, he will remember Mrs. Corizzi, the ex-G.I., and Joe. College is in his future.

Suzette Margaret Goebel

Wishing always to be happy, "Gobe" dislikes the sadness of good-byes and the feeling of being depressed. She is cheered by listening to "Wear Your Love Like Heaven," talking to J.A., or by making someone else happy. Mrs. O'Toole, Babe, and D.M. also hold important places in her life. Among her fondest memories are those of Danny, nights with Flea, and summers '69 and '70.

Linda L. Good

Even though she failed gym twice, Linda will always remember Miss Miller fondly. Along with thoughts of this teacher, she will keep memories of Mr. Thomas, Mrs. Grossman, 1/6/68, and Mike. Argument and listening to other people's reactions are intriguing to her, while eating is pleasurable.

Nancy Good

Patricia Ann Goven

While always wishing her feet would grow, Pat will remember the drive-in, Potter's apartment, U.S.R. with Win, long talks with Bon, 1/1/69, "The Rounds" with Flea, and football. "Puts" will enter college liking Mr. Smith, Mrs. O'Toole, yogurt, yellow, and Tom Jones.

Rolf Granger

Babe is remembered for his antics in school and out, where he is comfortable with Kip, Joe, Bones, Flea, Gobe, and Linda. Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, and roast beef executives are among his favorites. Upon graduating Babe hopes to be speeding towards California in his newly aquired panel truck.

Alan B. Gretz

"Greetings" is, to the amusement of his classmates and chagrin of his teachers, a very unique person. A musician himself, he enjoys the Beatles, Chicago, Lee Michaels, "Beginnings," and "Every Night". The Kid, HAJAB, 4th period English, Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Davies, and Miss Hillary are his favorites. Mr. Schmerler and the Mock 1 will be remembered as he tries to stay out of trouble.

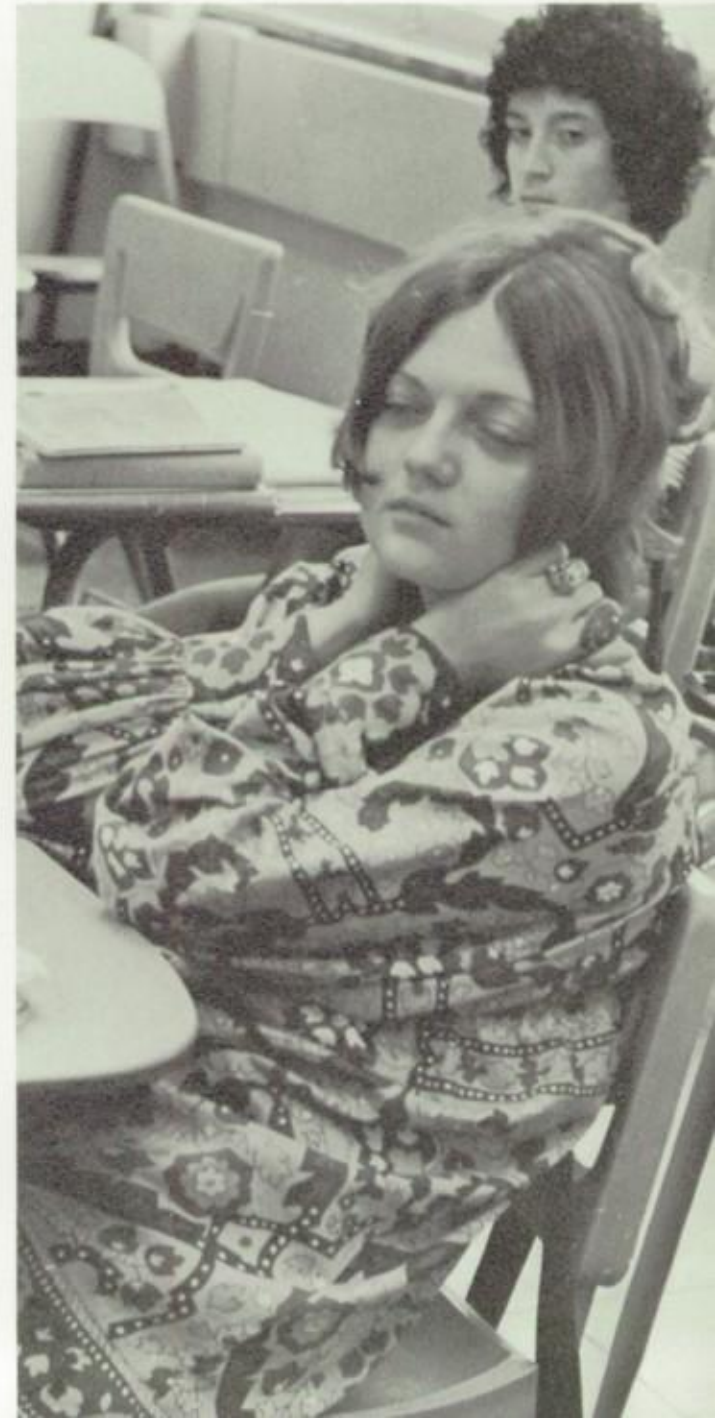

Suzanne Hamilton

Creativity and sincerity distinguish "Flooze", to whom music, Maine, Camp Laughing Loon, and the country have meaning. L.F., Mrs. Dee, rapping, Barbara, The Rings, Sundays with Heiser, getting to know "Big G", the family, Pam, Poopa, and Heskett, and "Hansel and Gretel" are memories, while happiness varies from red, walnuts, rain, sunsets, and CEPR to living on a farm after college.

Kurt O. Hartig

Kurt strives to get fulfillment from all he does, believing that friendship and the things worth asking for are the most important in his life. His happiness rests with good health, good friends, and security. Remembering Erica, Miss Ringle, "grossout weekly", Mr. Ufferfilge, and Miss Wershing, he will go on to college at Delhi Tech., continuing to enjoy observing facial expressions.

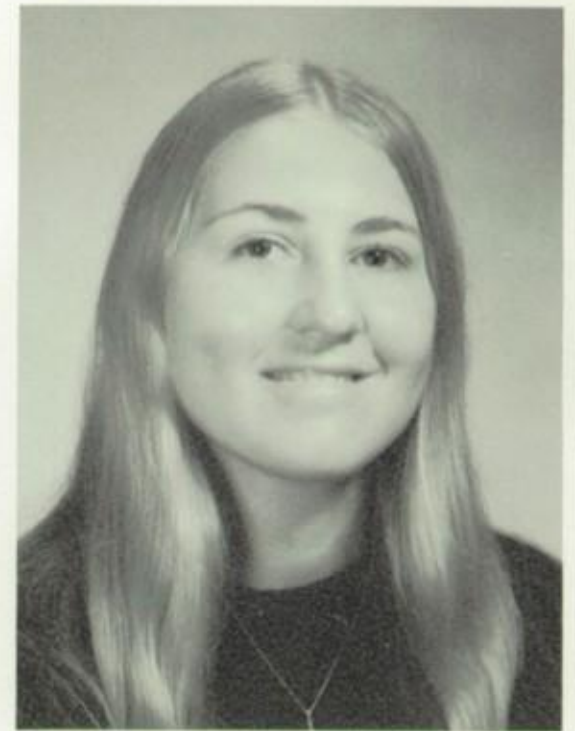

Jeff F. Hartman

Grateful to have completed high school, "Doc" will always hold memories of the "Gross-Out Weekly" as well as Mr. Hemphill and his "2001" field trip. Those with trustworthiness, dependability, and a sense of humor are most enjoyed by Jeff, who values Boris Karloff, E.A. Poe, Frank Zappa, and truth. His goal in life is to become an authority on the Third Reich.

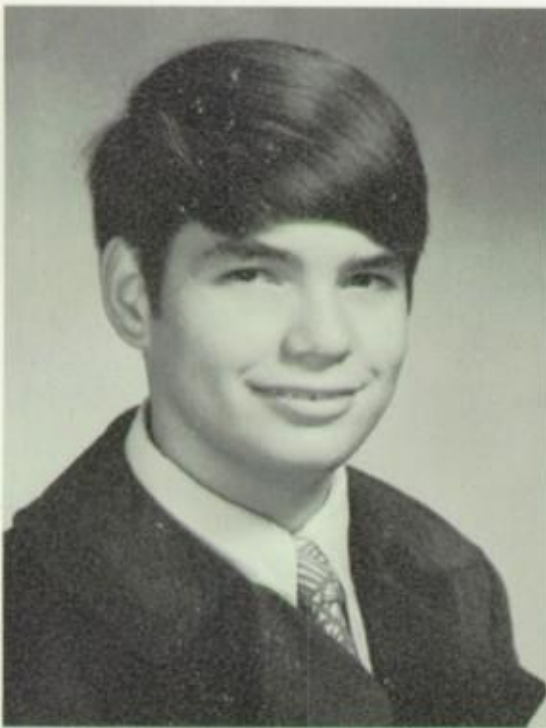

Scott Hegeman

Scott, a sedate, studious scholar, is viewed with an awe of wonder and respect for his seemingly all-encompassing knowledge of math and physics. Always willing to help others, he enjoys people with sincerity. Valuing his friends, school, and food most, Scott keeps memories of physics and Ray. To simply do his best will bring him happiness.

Nancy Ellen Heiser

A vivacious cheerleader, Nancy cherishes music, friends, understanding and unselfish people who can laugh and enjoy life. Cheering, Mrs. Plevan, a trip to Vermont, Ocean City, and L.J.C., find their places in her memories. Skiing in early spring, sitting by the ocean, and uninhibited moods bring happiness to Nancy.

John Henry Heschle, Jr.

Basing his life on two ideals, to love God and His Son Jesus Christ, and to love his neighbor as himself, John lives by the philosophy of Christian Pacifism, finding happiness in everything from God. Planning to major in religion and become a priest, he also intends to remember "Wow", Mrs. Dee, Latin class, and chef's course with the Italian.

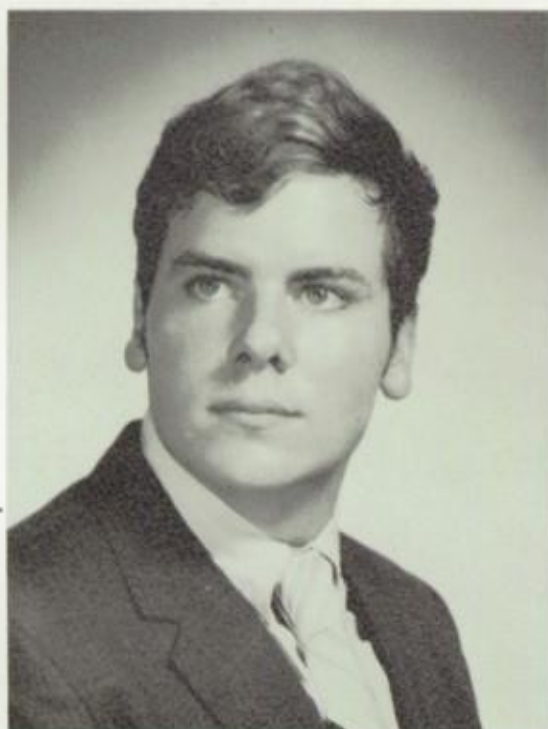

Daniel B. Hoch

Danny, a free and easy-going person, is most noted for his shy smile. Soccer, his first love, brings him happiness, closely followed by open, friendly, people, and listening to Hendrix. His memories of R.H.S. include Tech. Drawing III, Mr. D., and summer '70, as the "Hoch" looks forward to college and a new car.

John Holland

Strong and silent, John, is an outstanding athlete in terms of ability and character. Football and track are his best memories of high school. His attitude towards sports has been incorporated into his philosophy of life; being second best isn't good enough. Most important are truthfulness, sincerity, and people with a sense of humor. John's plans include college "with a little luck."

Mark Holland

Mark has shown our class the true spirit of participation and devotion, and thus deserves much recognition. His basic philosophy of life is to eat, drink, and be merry and tomorrow we'll do it all over again. For him, happiness comes with success. He just may become the happiest of us all.

Doug Henry Hollender

Carefree and independent, Doug may one day play pro-soccer. Even when dribbling the ball, however, he will remember Mr. Murray, Miss Kruse, Mr. Groh, 11/17/67, 7/9/69, B.G., summer '69, 10/8/70, and the Country Club lake, as well as continuing to enjoy music, especially the Beatles' "A Day in the Life".

Susan Hough

Sparkling with a great joy of life, Sue is looking forward to a life in San Francisco. Although she derives great satisfaction from an apple in fifth period study, skiing at Stowe, Pat's chicken, or from Fran's pudding, she enjoys most both being with people and being herself.

Diane Lynn Huss

A warm, sensitive, and vibrant girl who enjoys the laughter, friendliness, and help of others, Diane is one who works to get through today and then worries about tomorrow. Boat rides with D.W., summer '70, and riding ski lifts with W.E. and A.B. have been meaningful and fun to this future elementary teacher, as have been Mrs. Van Dyke, Mr. Ponchak, and Mr. Ufferfilge.

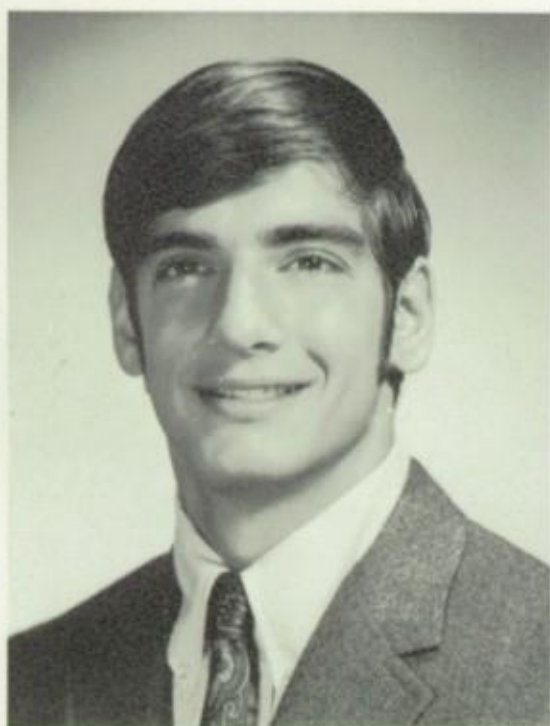

Joyce Hyde

True blue eyes and long brown hair distinguish pretty Joyce, who enjoys sleeping, weekends, navy blue, roast beef, B.W., "You Keep Me Hanging On", "Suite: Judy Blue Eyes", Miss Kruse, and walks in the snow. Keeping memories of 3/70, Joyce plans to attend secretarial school, and to be happy in the future.

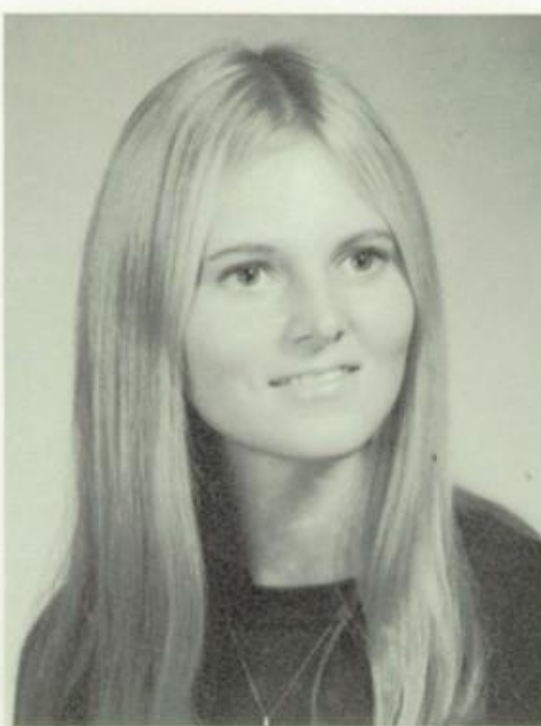

Patricia Irwin

Vivacious and always smiling, Pat lives life to its fullest by being around people. First chem lab, Fran's chocolate pudding, playing soccer with Robb, picnics, baking bread, having fun, and life, are happiness. Tricia Jane likes to wear fun clothes. She plans to go to college in the future.

Edward James Jannicelli

Good looking, easy going, and always smiling, Eddie likes short girls with blue eyes, football, Camelot and Hello Dolly, as well as spaghetti, french fries, hamburgers, and pretzels. While studying electronics and having fun, he will remember Mrs. O'Toole, Coach Reid, J.B., 8/21/68, 10/30/70, and Coach Polito.

Donna Jensen

Donna, whose humor is as quick as her smile, finds happiness in making other people happy. She enjoys getting to know others, remembering that friendship is a wonderful thing. Constantly striving to better herself and to avoid hurting anyone, she is glad to leave high school but will miss its atmosphere when she attends secretarial school.

Steve E. Jensen

The bell to end class has rung, but one figure remains inert at his desk until someone taps him on the shoulder. Outside the classroom, Steve awakens, especially in pursuing his favorite past times: girls, cars, and photography. Memories include, "De Clock", 1000 Islands, Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Ufferfilge, G.L., B.S., summer, and good times. Touring the U.S. is planned after June.

Barbra Jewell

Gentle and soft spoken, Barbra cherishes laughing, talking, touching, Scott, loving and living. Amidst occasional moments of solitude, the long talks over coffee with Miss Dichsen and how Mrs. Dee changed her life will be remembered. Desiring to rid herself of all inhibitions, Barbra finds happiness in the simplicity of a drive in her bug.

Karen L. Johnsen

A companionable girl with bright eyes and blond hair, Karen enjoys skiing and riding, both with friends. Although she dreaded getting up early, she does possess memories of RHS, these including the Junior Play, football and soccer games, lunch, Miss Ringle, and Mr. Ponchak. Thoughts of summer '70, Friday nights, and Ramsey will continue into her airline stewardess career.

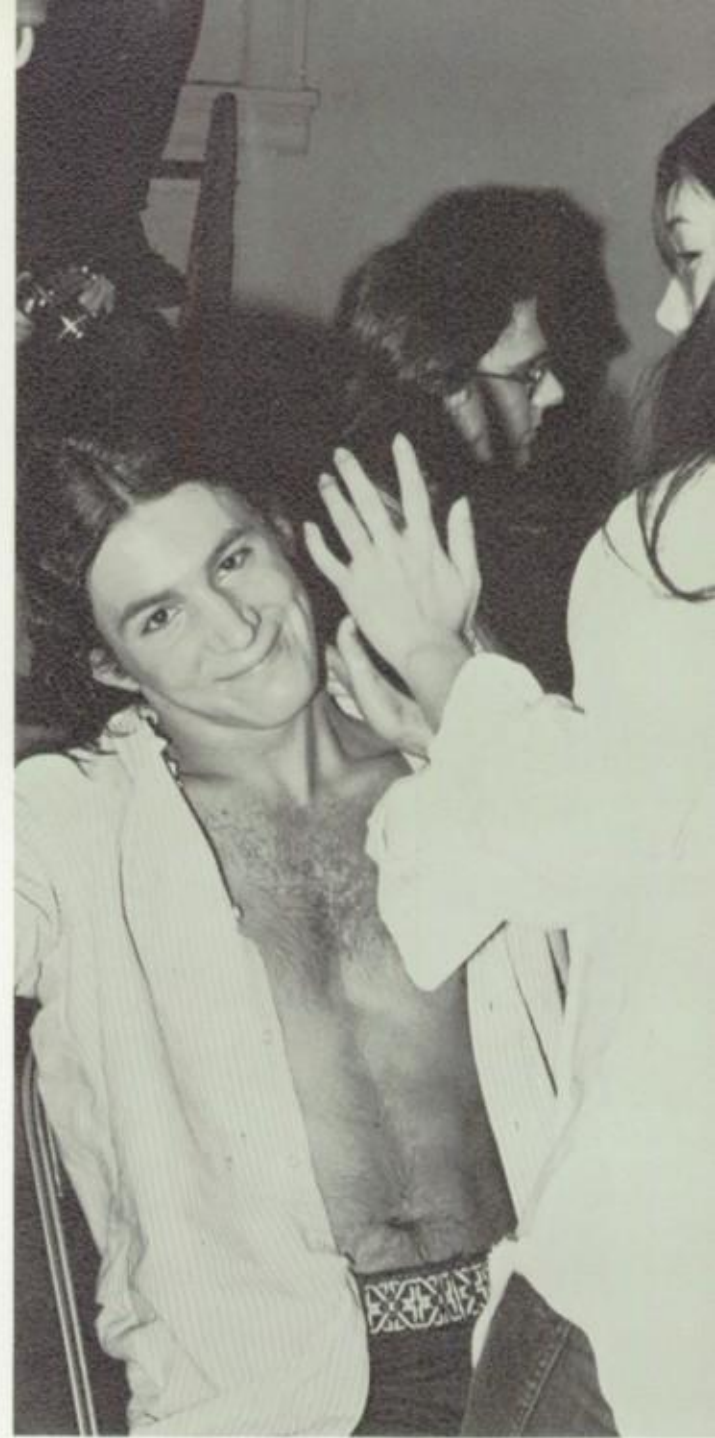

Diane Johnson

Optimism marks Diane, who enjoys making people laugh. To do as much in life as possible is most important to her. D.J. will remember days at Good Sam with Nancy, twirling, Sunday mornings, and campouts at Campgaw. Happiness is standing next to a seven foot man. Anxious to finish high school, Diane plans to be a nurse.

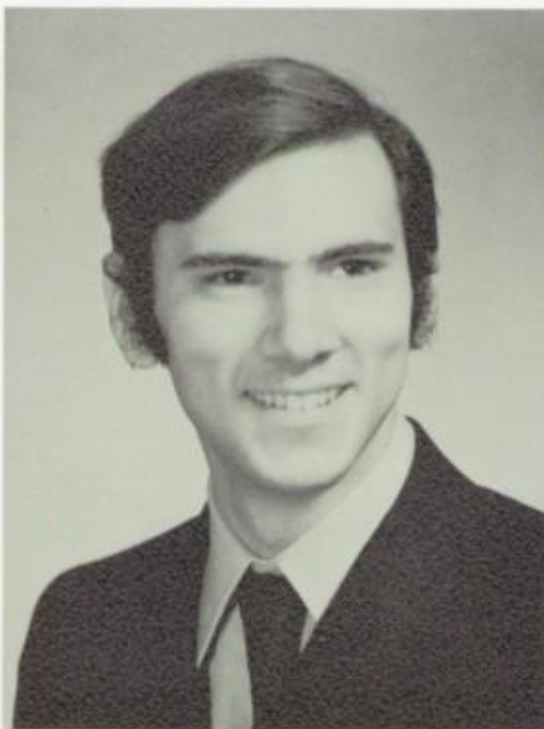

John Read Johnson

Johnny just wants to be happy, living a full life. Many have heard him say, "Don't worry coach. It's O.K.," as he talks to Mr. Molino, Mr. Murray, or Mr. Ufferfilge. Blisters and bad conditions are plagues he dislikes, yet steak, pizza, Jill, Sheila, and Dave are all favorites. He hopes someday to become a sound engineer for a fantastic group.

Suzanne W. Joyce

Suzanne is one of the few lucky ones among us who has had the opportunity of living on another continent. In Europe she learned to ski well, and now she would like to be a ski instructor during the winter. Mr. Molino and her junior homeroom will remain vivid memories. Happiness is in friendships with others, whose unique qualities she finds most enjoyable.

Ted Karpovich

Being an active sportsman, Ted enjoys attending athletic events. Football and track activities as well as Mr. Murray, Mr. Ufferfilge, the election, fourth lunch, Montreal, Doc, Spanish II, J.J., E.J., S.F., E.L., and Blimpies will be remembered as he continues to be a fan of Notre Dame, Bobby Hull, and Raquel Welch while wishing to own an XKE.

Charles Kaucher

Living itself is most valued by Charles. His aim is affluence, yet when he has all the sumptuous food at his table, he will still remember fourth lunch. As he attends college, he will continue to be molded by others who have left an impression on him, for he feels this is what determines a person's character.

Barbara Kellam

Pensive and sensitive, Barbara finds that love and respect of other human beings and an occasional moment of solitude in which to ponder her thoughts bring her peace and happiness. Barb remembers "Dad O'Leary", the Junior Play, German with Frau Treskin, Mrs. Corizzi, and her English teachers. She enjoys being able to share the emotions of others, especially their joy.

Bill Kelley

Bill always comes to class equipped with his sense of humor. Never will he forget freshman basketball, Mr. Davies, or Mrs. Corizzi. Planning to attend college and study podiatry, he has set his goals but hopes to have a good time while accomplishing them.

Arlene F. Kelly

Arlene, the green-eyed wonder, is happiest when with the people she loves. Among her many memories of RHS are Miss Miller, Mr. Henderson, M.T., N.M., P.G., and G.L., as well as soccer games. Arlene anxiously awaits the day she will get her license and a car. Her future plans include a career in the airlines.

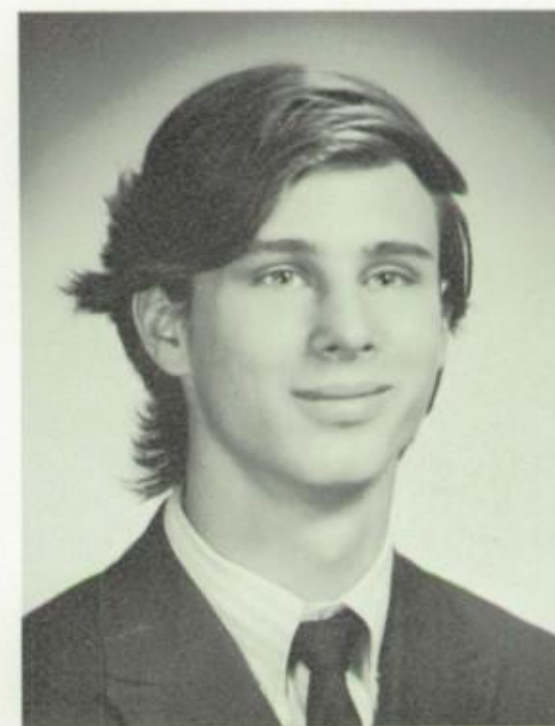

Tom Kenison

The need for people and their need for you describes what Tom enjoys most about persons. Happiness to this bright-eyed, smiling, red-headed boy is doing what he wants, being content, and having success. Even while operating a tropical fish hatchery in South America, he will hold thoughts of Sue, Miss Kruse, "the great pumpkin", 3/28/70, and Miss Wawrzossek.

Stephen M. Kloeber

Taking things as they are is the way Steve lives his life. Making new friends and having a good time with them are important to him. Having enjoyed wrestling, Mr. Baer, and Mr. Hyman, he will continue to like eating and sleeping as he furthers his education.

Mike Kluz

Whether cutting or on vacation, Mike managed to enjoy his high school years through either sleeping, eating, visiting the shore, going to movies, reading cartoons, or walking around New York City. His future plans include art school and traveling West.

Gina Knight

A bubbly and energetic cheerleader, Gina most enjoys people with whom she can laugh, cry, and share experiences. Memories of high school include Tom, 9/12/70, Koinonia, canoe trips, the family, Sue, Mr. Henderson, "Whiter Shade of Pale", and J.D.'s house. Happiness is being away from crowds, gazing at stars, or living in a beautiful world that two people can create.

Carol Koltz

Carol, warm, sensitive, and quiet, is one who enjoys the communication and eyes of people. Seeking honest, sincere friends, she desires most peace of mind. Her memories are of Newark in the rain with J.S., L.B., and P.S., "Lady of the Island", Ken, and frisbee. To spend her life with J.C. would bring her true meaning and happiness.

William Brian Kretzmer

Humorous and easy going, Brian finds that friendship, truth, trust, and making something of his life are most important to him. Brian will never forget J.H.'s "Grossout Weekly", non-western civ. with Mr. Hemphill, and card games at J.B.'s. As he goes on to college, Brian will miss the good times, and especially his friends.

Kenneth Lake

You will always find Ken with a book in his hand and a glow in his eye. Happiness to him is having a good job, much money, and being able to sleep until 1:00. He will always remember the office and Mr. Unterstein. Feeling confident in leaving Ramsey, Ken plans to attend college.

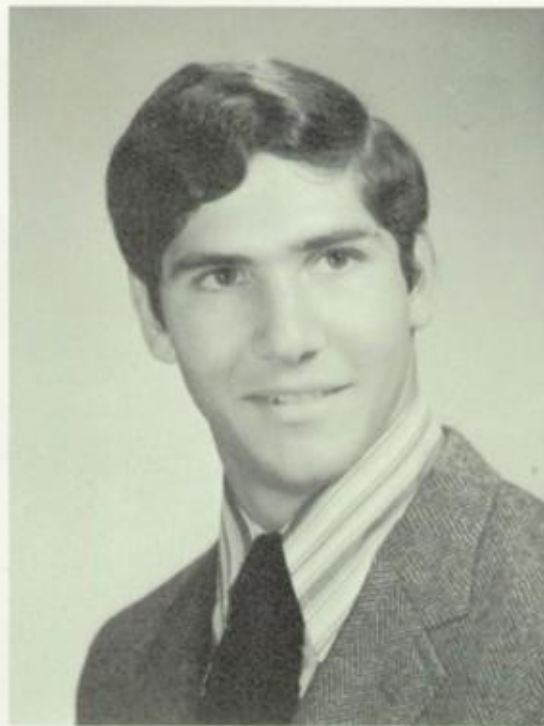

Stacey Ann Leschel

Friendly and taking each day separately, "Bagel" has memories of Mr. Mura, Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Note, 8/18/70, summer '70, and good times with friends. J.T., D.C., friendship, freedom, sunshine, and people who try to better themselves are well-liked. With college in the future, she plans to improve herself, making the most of life.

Jennifer Catherine Lewis

Full of life and goodness, Missy believes "prayer doesn't change God, but rather he who prays." Friendliness and honesty will remain important to her as she leaves RHS, remembering the third floor stairs with J.M., 6/6/68, 12/13/68, and "Happy Acres". After college this cheerleader, who has added much spark to life, will live happily in the country, or so she hopes.

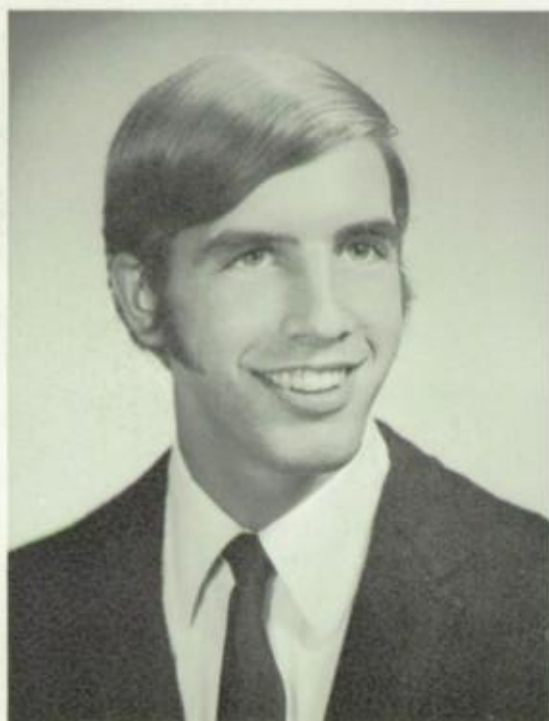

Allen G. Lewitz

As a top notch athlete, Allen desires to give 100% in everything he does. Warmth, friendliness, sincerity and confidence are important to this future baseball player. Mr. Ponchak, 1970 Baseball Championship, as well as Mr. Murray and beach parties will be remembered as he strives to become somebody, searching for happiness, feeling each day is as important as the next.

Gary Little

Always joking and forever smiling, Gary likes the color of A.K.'s eyes, whoppers, Mr. Davies, Mr. Unterstein, and Mr. Ufferfilge. His memories will be of Arlene, 9/1/70, riding around with S.J. and P.H., Maine, summer '70, soccer, and talks with P.H. Gary plans to become rich, bumming around the rest of his life while desiring not to be jealous.

Keene H. Little

Keene, sincere and hard working, will surely achieve his goals of companionship and higher education. He will remember Mrs. Corizzi giving him his nickname and fun times outside of school which include Maine and picnics with his "cousins". After college Keene plans to settle down with a mini-skirted girl who makes a good blueberry pie.

Barbara Ann Lloyd

Spook's secret ambition is to win a Pulitzer Prize for a non-fiction work at the age of 24. Mrs. O'Neill, Mr. Mura, Mrs. Van Dyke, apple green, Nancy's cookies, 3/22/70, 9/24/69, Ray and "Mom" are all in her memories of these last four years.

Mark D. Lloyd

Who in RHS enjoys sports more than Mark? Probably no one: Mark lives for sports. In fact, they say he even had a baseball bat and glove in hand when he was born. True or false, Mark's special love of athletics is common knowledge. Just ask Mr. Murray, Mr. Ponchak, any member of the baseball team, or Mark himself.

Connie Logan

Straight forward and optimistic, Connie enjoys talking and being with friends. Her future includes nursing, but her memories of RHS are 11/12/69, summer of '70, skiing with G.L. and W.E., and good times with J.W., A.T. and W.E. Important in Connie's life are her happiness and freedom.

Kathleen M. Lopez

With her good sense of humor and enjoyment of life, Kathy will most surely succeed. Finding happiness in Friday afternoons, the shore, summer, and walking through snow, she hopes to understand herself better. Mrs. Corizzi, Mrs. Simon, Mr. Ufferfilge, summer of '70, and Darlington have become part of her memories.

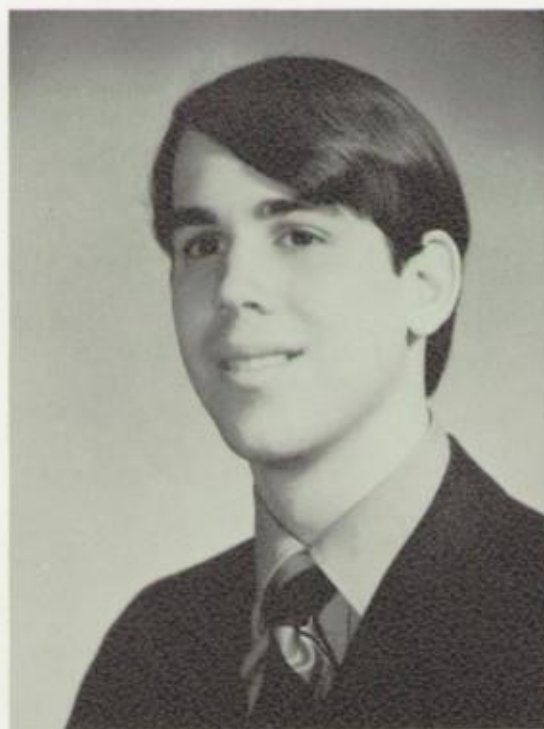

Jeanne Louise Lorey

Beautiful in her bountiful smiles, serious moods, and glowing interest in life, truth, and fun, Jeanne plans to love and to live. Always logical in thought, whether solving a physics, math, or chemistry problem, she intends to remember Michael, camp, chorus rehearsals, Sunday mornings with Diane, skiing with Nancy and Joanne, 3/21/70, 10/31/70, and New Milford. Her happiness lies in a ski slope, the country, and five dozen clams.

Judy Lough

Sincerity, weirdness and a willingness to laugh are the traits Judy enjoys most about people. Among her memories are Mr. Cargill, the turned-on yoyo, Pinochle Street and Wildwood with A.M., J.R., M.F. and C.C. Her favorites are blue, the shore, and weekends, but Judy is turned off by the shrivels, the D.Q., or washing up.

Michael Laurence Lubetkin

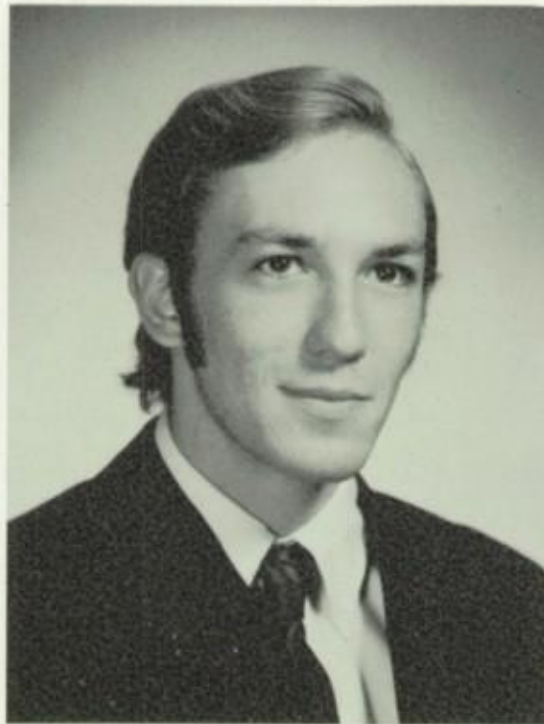

Sometimes serious, always fun-loving, and often one to challenge others' opinions, Michael is open-minded in his fervent beliefs. The Nugget Staff, Jeanne, Babs, discussions with Kevin, getting to know and understand Joanne, raps with Nancy and Sue, and summer '70 have all left imprints on his memory. As he leaves, he will miss both the fun he had and the friends he made.

Edward C. Lubieniecki

Many classes would have been very dull without "Lubi" and his wit and winning smile. A comfortable guy to be around who denies conformity and enjoys others for their truthfulness, Ed will always remember Mr. Davies, math classes with Miss Wawrzosek, and Randall's Island. As he searches for people with substance and an open mind, Ed will study to become an architect.

Ken Lucca

Perhaps one day Ken will be crossing the country on a motorcycle in search of a good job, but now his high school memories are of Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. O'Toole, Miss Kruse, Peggy and 5/12/70. Ken tries his best to avoid school, gym and dances, but you will never find him passing up a steak or pizza.

Len L. Magaraci

When some people leave school, you never hear of them again. This won't be the case with "Kid Mag". To hear him again, just turn on the radio or T.V. You may see him as a baseball announcer with a million dollar salary, broadcasting a Yankee pennant game, yet in all his future glory he will remember the shop teachers at RHS.

Carol Anne Mahnken

People with a sense of humor, and their eyes, are cherished by Carol, to whom happiness is being able to laugh. "Mama Steve's", The Doors, Mrs. O'Toole, baked clams and tennis are prevalent among her collection of memories. Carol aspires to make other people happy and have a good time.

Natalie Adele Makowski

Always laughing and friendly, "Nat" wishes to make the world a better place in some small way. She will never forget summer of '68, "the screen" at Wildwood, Walton and good times with Ben. Her favorites include listening to the radio all night, the ocean and candystripping. Nat plans to be a nurse in the future.

Judy L. Mandara

Hoping to succeed in her own terms and to be happy, Judy has enjoyed most the friends she has made in high school. Feeling confident in leaving RHS, she plans college study as well as frequent trips to the beach where she has found happiness.

Cheryl Lynn Mapes

Cheryl can be found anywhere doing most anything, but her favorites are Barry, talking to people, popcorn, Jimi Hendrix, Mrs. Packer, Mrs. O'Toole and Miss Miller. Gym classes, homeroom talks with Carol, 9/13/68 at the fort, "the screen" at Wildwood, and good times with Nat and Sue are things that this future secretary will never forget.

Linda Marie Markana

Sincerity and kindness shine from Linda's beautiful eyes. The security of being with people she loves and the sense of humor and friendliness of others are her dimensions of happiness. Striving towards a better understanding of mankind, Linda desires to make someone happy and find complete contentment.

Jean-Marta E. Marone

With a friendly smile for everyone, Jean enjoys meeting and communicating with people and just being with them. Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Simon, Mr. Winslow's fall into a certain bucket and 9/15/70 will remain among her many memories of high school. Jean tries to enjoy every minute of life, believing that people make the world-the world does not make them.

Paul Mathieson

"Moose", existing in a world of girls and Fords, desires to stay one step ahead of a certain unfinished blue Mustang. Wrestling, Mr. Ufferfilge, and Mr. Hyman have meant much to him, but he could do without basketball and Chevy lovers. Freshman gym class, his little sister's problems, and the roadcourse will never fade from memory.

Susan Elizabeth McAllister

With a spinning baton and a smiling face, Sue desires to get the most from life as possible. Up to this point, Jack, 3/21/70, majorettes, Miss Miller, Mrs. Plevan, A.B., and G.K. have all added something to her life. As she enters language study, her happiness will be derived from being with those she likes and doing something enjoyable.

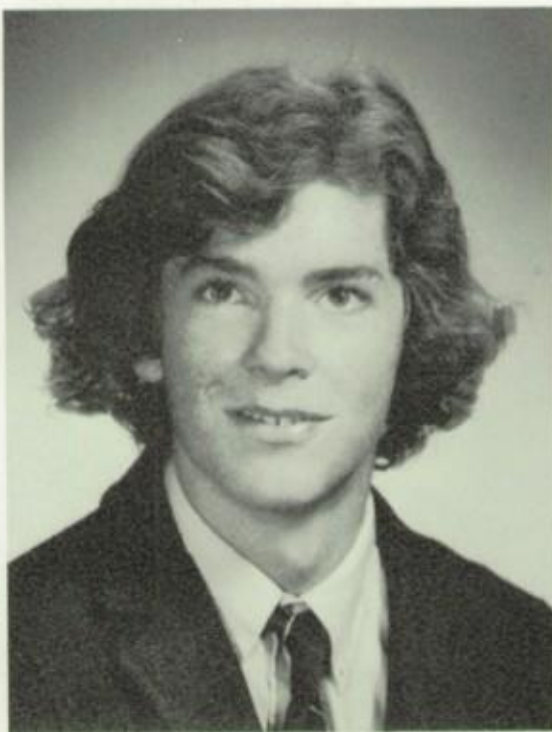

Janine M. McDonald

To make this beautiful, brown-eyed girl happy, send her traveling or to a country farm. To live with mirth and laughter, letting old wrinkles come is her philosophy, as she values music, friends, and "Dapple White". Although feeling free upon commencing the rest of her life with college, she will still remember "Happy Acres", Long Island, the third floor steps, and June 6, 1968.

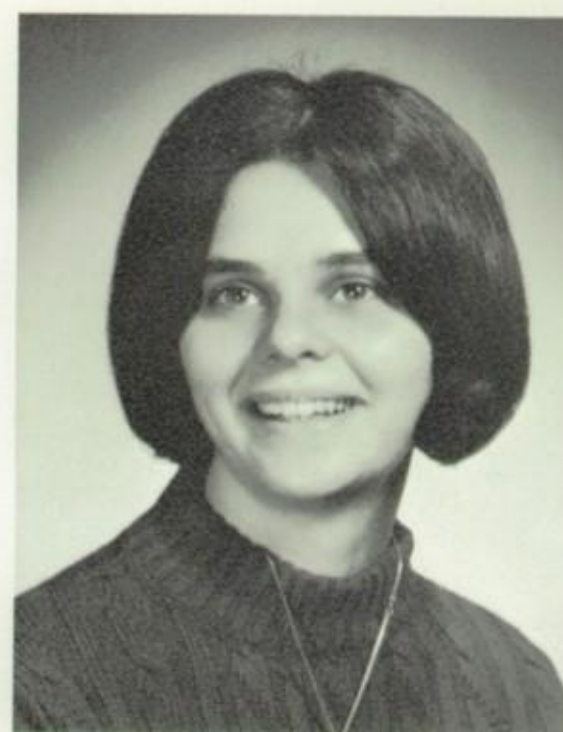

Timothy J. McGrail

Always with a friendly disposition, Tim tries to have fun before it's too late, but also to be serious when necessary. While traveling around the world, skiing and eating, hoping never to grow old, he will remember the Junior play, Mrs. Corizzi, ice cubes, Gideon's Bible, and the CYO convention. Having someone to talk to and to laugh with is his happiness.

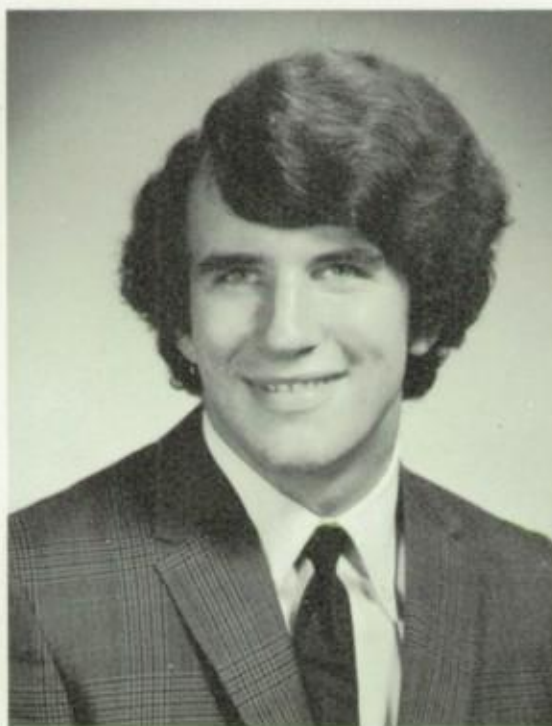

Steve McLaughlin

Desirous of growing a tail and doing his own thing, Steve at times enjoys laughing at people, while he will always dislike getting up at 7:00. Finding that his purpose is to have fun, Steve's peak of happiness is a Queef.

Patricia Leslie McNamee

Pat, friendly in everyway, has fond memories of Mr. Aston, Mr. Babbini, Mr. Polito, Tom and the shore. Often heard saying "Ask me if I care", Pat will never forget 6/22/70, 8/11/70, the shore with T.R., W.H. and M.R. and feeding the ducks with Tom.

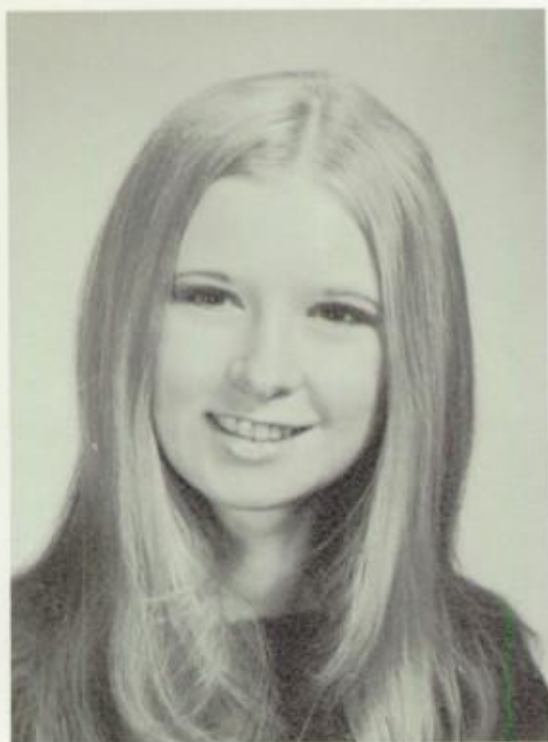

John McStravick

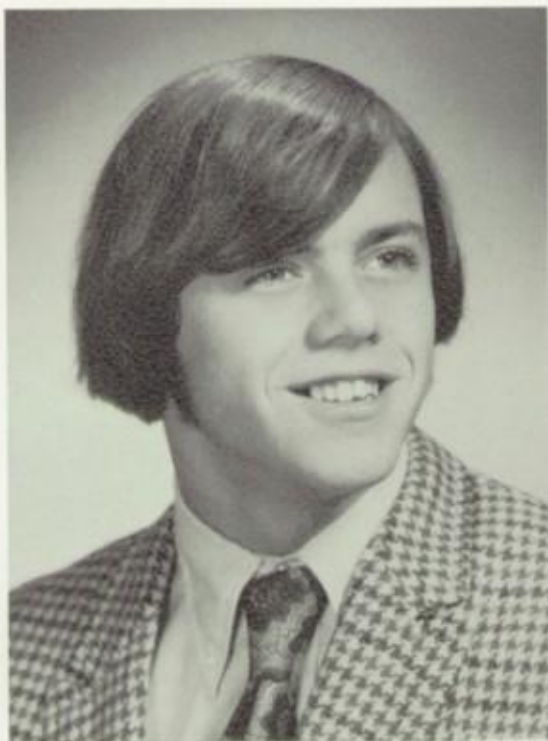

Robert Mehl

A quiet, sincere boy, Rob hopes to take as much of life as he can, enjoying the different personalities, styles, and ways of life found among people. His memories are of 6/4/70, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Calvano, and the other shop teachers. To be happy, free of money worries, to eat steak and hamburgers, and to watch "Mission Impossible" is to live a good life.

Ruth Ellen Meredith

To be happy with what she is doing and what she has is most important to poised, softspoken Ruth. She will remember cheerleading, Miss Kruse, sophomore year, and the people at RHS. Happiness is spending time with B.H. Ruth plans to go to college, teach and then leave Ramsey.

Greg M. Miller

Carefree, funloving and independent best describe "Mill". Whether in school or bombing down a ski slope, Greg has learned to enjoy himself to the fullest. He will best remember the shore, Gore, parties, the night with J.P., B.C., C.V.R., B.M., P.B., at A. C., Wa Wa and skiing. Mocking, certain chairlifts, and snow banks are the few things that Greg doesn't enjoy.

Melissa Jane Monteith

A radiant smile distinguishes Missy, who enjoys meeting and being with people. Her fondest memories include Mr. Thomas, Miss Kruse, Miss Wawrzosek, Sue, Shirley, Melinda, Math III, 5/8/70, 1/20/69, shore '67, and 3/22/70. She enjoys chicken, Flip Wilson, D.Q. and shore trips with M.P., B.A., M.W., and C.A. College and Home Economics lie in the future.

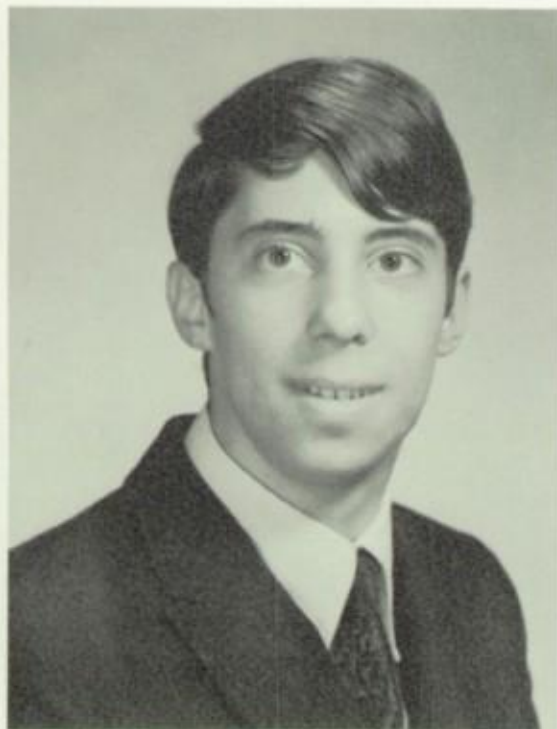

Anne Moore

Anne will always remember Mr. Cargill, chorus rehearsals, Judy, Laurie, Joanne, Win, Andrews Avenue, weekends with Jo and Karen, and the turned on yoyo. She likes getting out early, sleeping late, Wildwood and W.B., while she dislikes math, gym, and the shrivels.

Bruce Moore

Bruce finds that not being in school is best, for then he can ski as much as he wishes. Desiring to be a ski bum, of the past he will remember Gore Mt., No. 37, Tuesdays at Great Gorge, Capt. Campgaw, Chair No. 9, Chicago, Mr. Calvano, and Mrs. Dotson. Snow and the song, "Inside Looking Out", are two things that make Bruce very happy.

David Moulin

Quiet in his actions and studies, Dave is one whose pleasures vary from bombing down a ski slope to coming home late without being grounded. He is a golfer to whom a smile and sincerity mean most. Among his memories are Bob, "his sister", and all close friends.

Tom Mueller

A tennis bum at heart, Tom values happiness, friends, and an abundance of money. When his four years at RHS are long gone he will still possess memories of Mrs. Corizzi, Mrs. Treskin, Mr. "A.C.E." Ackerman's math class, the tennis team, and of the German club. Tom's future holds a college education and possibly an engineering degree.

Leonard Mulhall

Tall and lean, Len is one who emphatically expresses his opinions. He wants to enjoy life, living it as it comes and valuing that which is not of a material nature. Having had some good times in high school, he is now anticipating his departure, anxious and happy to go on to a new and different life — college.

Veronica Jeanne Mulvey

Pretty and cheerful best describe Ronnie, a sincere person who feels that being special to someone is most important in life. One who enjoys those who know how to laugh and have fun, she remembers Cincinnati, Carl, Patsy, "The Family", John, and Rich. "Never expecting anything she isn't prepared to give", her happiness lies in discovering new places and people.

Robin N. Murray

There's never a dull moment with Robin around. Who will ever forget her laughter and joy? Being at the shore, tied down by nothing and no one, is her happiness. While friendship and her teddy bear are most important, Melanie, West Point, "Strawberry Fields", "The Who", and Joe Cocker have also found places in her life. Traveling and modeling are her dreams.

Greg Muti

"Like a true nature's child, he was born to be wild." Greg hopes to stay young and free, but to lead a life that will mean something to himself. A loyal and friendly person earns his respect. Mr. Note, Mr. Terhune, and wrestling are his deepest memories of RHS, along with "Rock-Pah-Hay" and "Titanic". He now desires to see the country.

Steve Muzzillo

Paula Jean Napolitano

With twinkling eyes that sparkle of the shore, blue, and "You've Made Me So Very Happy", "Paul" desires to find happiness. Janice, D.Q., wrestling matches, Darlington, and Shop-rite complete her memories of high school. Continually striving to be happy, Paula plans to attend secretarial school in the future.

Barbara Helen Nash

Barby's talents include much more than her unbelievable gymnastic ability. Looking back, memories of cheering, May '69, 3/7/70, special people, a second home, staying up all night, basketball games, long talks with Nancy, and sunrises will return. Enjoying most people who care a lot about others, people who can really give of themselves, she also cherishes fresh air and health.

Nancy Ann Nelson

Seen always with a sunny smile to make others happy, Nancy is concerned and friendly towards everyone, a perfect future nurse. She derives happiness not only from cheery faces but also through skiing on long trails in New Hampshire, walking along the beach, and from tasting strawberry ice cream.

Nicholas B. Nixon

"To live life to its fullest" is Nick's major reason for existing. The day he began doing this, on 3/4/53, was his big day. He likes to do what he wants, a desire which includes growing a second head. A person's smell and the smell and sound of quiet make him happy.

Marianne Lesley Northorp

An added personality to the Senior class this year, Leslie joined us while leaving much of her heart back in California with her West coast friends. Teachers as well as acquaintances will be her strongest memory ties to high school, as she enters either college or secretarial school, hoping to someday return to California.

Kathleen Mary O'Dowd

In addition to the day when there will be no pollution problem, "O'Dowd" looks forward to snow, skiing, and horseback riding. Enjoying the company, smiles, and eyes of others, she desires to travel throughout the U.S. Softball and field hockey with Mrs. Young and Mrs. Tyler, Mrs. Dee, and skiing with Sue and Shirley will remain cherished memories as she leaves high school.

Gail O'Neil

Always getting along with other people and having fun, Gail finds the most important things in her life are B.G., happiness, and a world with no more wars. She enjoys other people's opinions and the way each person dresses differently. Mrs. Cooper, Mr. Ponchak, Mrs. O'Neill, 6/18/71, 12/27/68, and three happy years of B.G. will always be remembered.

Gerald G. Onorato

Gerald plans to "make it big", secretly hoping to do this by marrying a rich girl. Even after he has achieved success, he will remember Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, Mr. Davies, 3/15/68, Debby, Roy, and study halls. Red, blue, and blondes will always be his favorite colors.

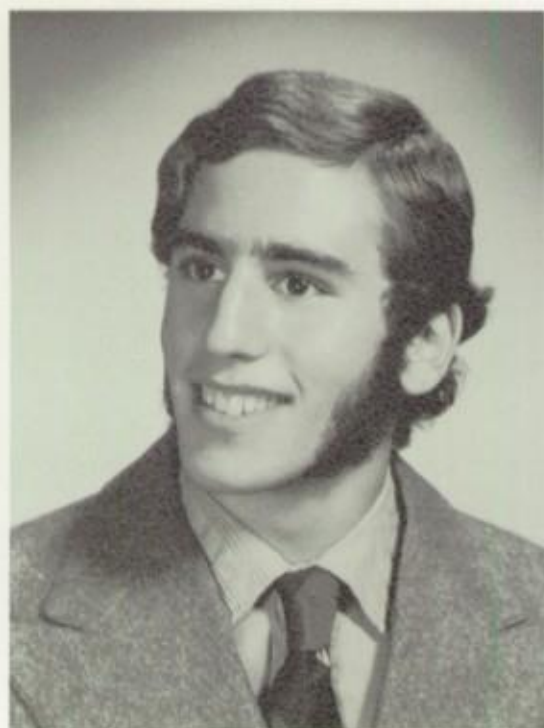

John R. Orr

Just as there is almost no end to "Tiny", there is no end to his friendship, for he finds happiness in making and meeting friends. Good times include Wildwood with Cousin Willy and John, band practices, the Buckingham Dr. gang, cross country, Mr. Molino, Mr. Davies, and study halls with Floozie. After graduation, John will take life as it comes, doing what he wants and living independently.

Nancy M. Otto

Quiet in her thoughts, goodness, and concern, Nancy values her friends most. Anxiously anticipating summer '71, she will not, however, forget Mr. Crum, Mrs. Cooper, Mr. Ponchak, Raz's parties, or driving Katie home. Neither will 9/23/67 or the happiness derived from Mike's Nomad, Saturday nights, and waterskiing slip her memory. Once graduated, she plans marriage and a family.

John Salvatore Paul Paravati

If a guy with lots of enthusiasm and sideburns greets you with a big "hello", it's John. Especially partial to guitars, pizza, and minis, he is always on the go, be it track, cross country, or whatever. Wildwood and bands with J.A., J.O., and R.T. will be memories as he continues to value the ability to be free and to get along with everyone.

John E. Pasichnyk

Interested in electronics, John is one who values freedom of expression as well as honest and sincere people. He has found happiness with "Cheetah", Joyce, and driving with J.V., but he also will remember Mr. Morris, summer '70, and 10/8/70. As a future navy and electronics man, "P.C." will continue to like "Solitary Man", Zeppelin, Indiana, and cheeseburgers.

Lorraine Sandra Patti

As she "follows the right even to the fire, but excluding the fire if she can", Rainy will remember Twin, 11/28/68, Tom, and weekend vacations. Confident about leaving high school, she plans a future including fashion school and marriage. Treasuring respect and sincerity, Rainy desires to love and to be loved.

Mike Peirsel

"Yid" is one who has found pleasure from cars, the auto annex, Ford GM, and Mr. Baer, as well as from Mrs. O'Toole and Mr. Wahl. Always wanting something to occupy his time, he will remember making a race horse with Mr. Baer, 9/8/70, Lois, scrabble tournaments, and fourth period English. Perhaps someday he will own a fleet of VW busses.

Carol Lynn Pepe

Carol, a bubbly character, often bursts with interest and excitement. Having established roots in Illinois with Char, she now may attend college there. Anxious to receive mail and to be happy with P.S., Sue, and friends, she leaves RHS remembering Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Dee, and Mrs. Simon, loving "Knight in White Satin", and recollecting the day she cut her waist-length hair.

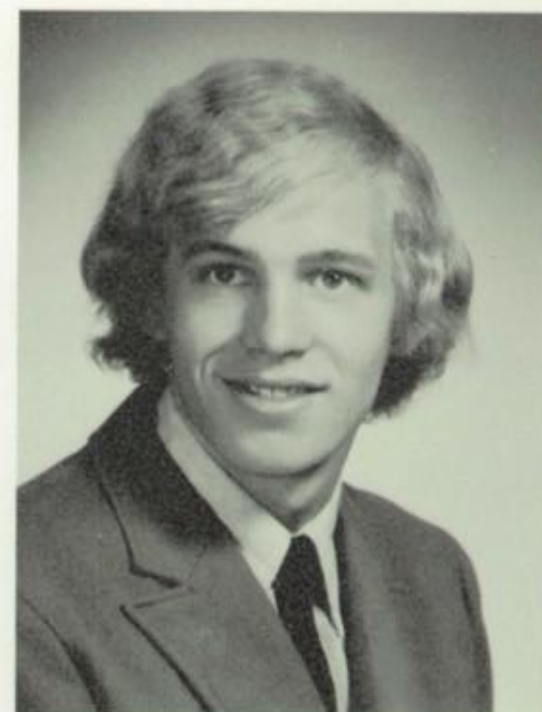

Peggy Ann Pera

The puritanical yet hilarious Miss Kilroy in the Junior Play, as well as a member of the Senior Play cast, Peggy has proven that she is not quiet all the time. High school memories of getting up early, gym, eating cafeteria food, and of acting under Mrs. Dee will always remain with this future art instructor. Happiness is both a purple Challenger and watching the clouds.

Gail M. Peters

Interested in life and fun, Gail enjoys happy people and appreciates a good sense of humor. She remembers Mr. U., C.H., P.D., 6th period gym, skiing, and George of the Jungle. Her future also includes college and simply being happy.

Harry Peterson

"Har" is one guy who is glad to leave RHS. Despite his joy at the prospects of graduating, he will still remember Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, V.W.'s, Yaw Paw, caves, and 10/24. In the future he will hopefully own a Boss 429 while continuing his education.

James A. Petitt

Witty, good-natured, and forever ready for a good time, Jim will always remember Ann, T.B.'s parties, the soccer team, Mr. Henderson, and Miss Kruse. Liking cold duck, sarcastic jokes, and John Mayall's "California", he plans college as well as driving a certain girl crazy. Perhaps he will continue saying, "You'll get over it."

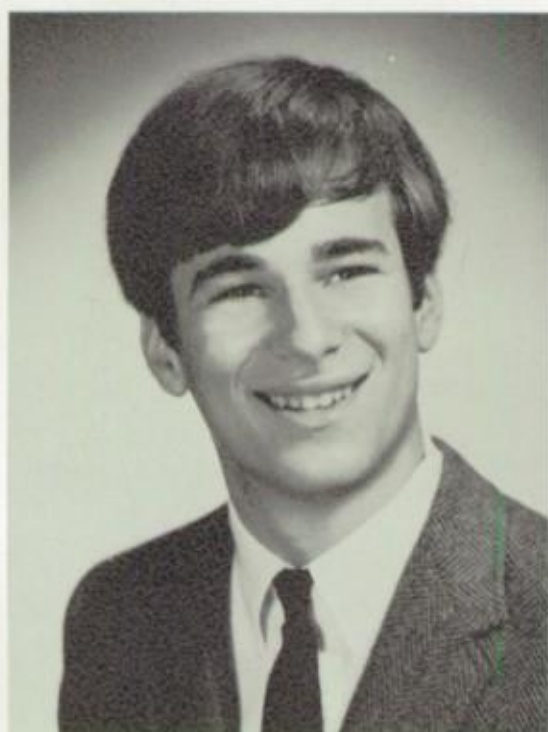

Pamela Anne Plante

With enthusiasm and friendliness Pam lives her life of sewing, fried chicken, chocolate, and Buzzards Bay. High school experiences in earth science with Mr. Thomas, soggy sneakers in gym, color guard tryouts, and spring vacation '70 will never be forgotten. As Pam advances to nursing school she will also remember Steve and Paul and enjoying friendly smiles.

James Pope

A quick mind as well as legs typify this athlete. The soccer team, in addition to Torres' cheer and "they have ceased playing" will never be forgotten as he enters college. Jim enjoys the reactions of others to things both said and done. His goal is to complete all he starts, doing it correctly.

John Porter

An intellectual planning to enter some field of chemistry, John hopes to be successful in his chosen career. Chess occupies much of his free time, as he will never forget beating the duffers after school. Wishing not to be lazy but rather hardworking, he feels, however, that he is too lazy to change. John will acquire his greatest happiness as a chessmaster.

Nancy Ellen Portner

Rosy and glowing in personality, Nancy values the freedom to be oneself. Of the past four years, she will remember Miss Wawrzosek, April '70, Eagle Bay, and Potomac, Md., as she continues to ski and enjoy meeting others. To do something for someone is the source of her happiness, while she hopes to make a worthwhile contribution to life.

Melinda Suzanne Purdy

Enthusiastically friendly and anxious to participate, Melinda is most happy when she is with people who mean a lot to her. Gatherings of sincere persons and of friends with a sense of humor have been happy times. As she leaves high school, Mr. Van Dyke, Mrs. Dee, and the main office secretaries remain memories.

Barbara Ann Radtke

Barb, finding Ramsey unexciting, will usually be found in Mahwah with her gang — N.W., M.T., S.S., D.D., and J.H. Her fond memories include basketball games, parties, driving around, Mr. Ponchak, and a "bunch of kids". College should afford her many new friends and experiences.

Janet L. Quakenbush

Excitable and happy in nature, Janet enjoys music, particularly by Grand Funk, The Who, and Flip Wilson. Content eating hamburgers and root beer, she is at times impatient, never liking to wait. Doubling with Gary and Linda, watching the hubbas with D.J., the D.Q., and 11/2/70 will compose her memories of high school times.

George Becket Rahal

In every group of any size, one is bound to find at least an individual with a refreshingly new and different viewpoint. Becket is this person. He feels that everyone is confusing, but he proves to be frank and fascinating to know. To waste time and to go to college are Becket's plans.

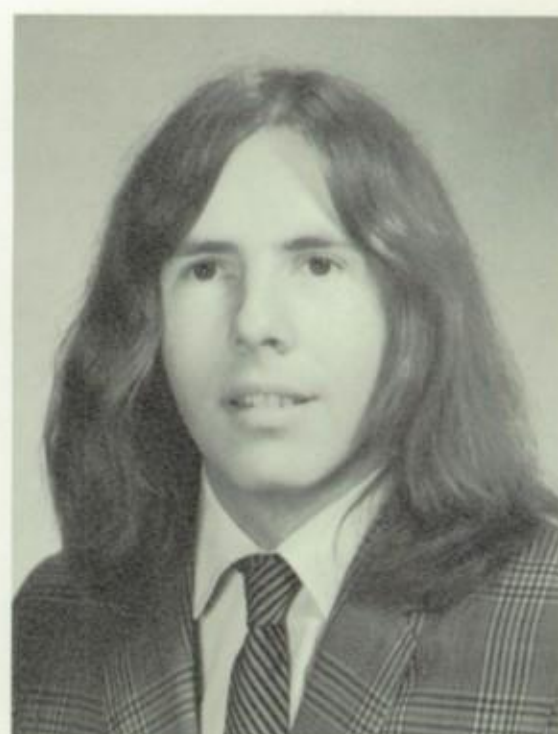

Felicia Rapp

Upset by losing things, broken promises, and one big mistake, "Flea" has enjoyed Mrs. O'Toole and Mrs. Cooper, and will continue to like "Midnight Special", "Mean Mistreater", and chopped sirloin steak. She will carry with her memories of a certain night out with the moon, Boinky, Gobe, and good times with Win, as she moves on to business school.

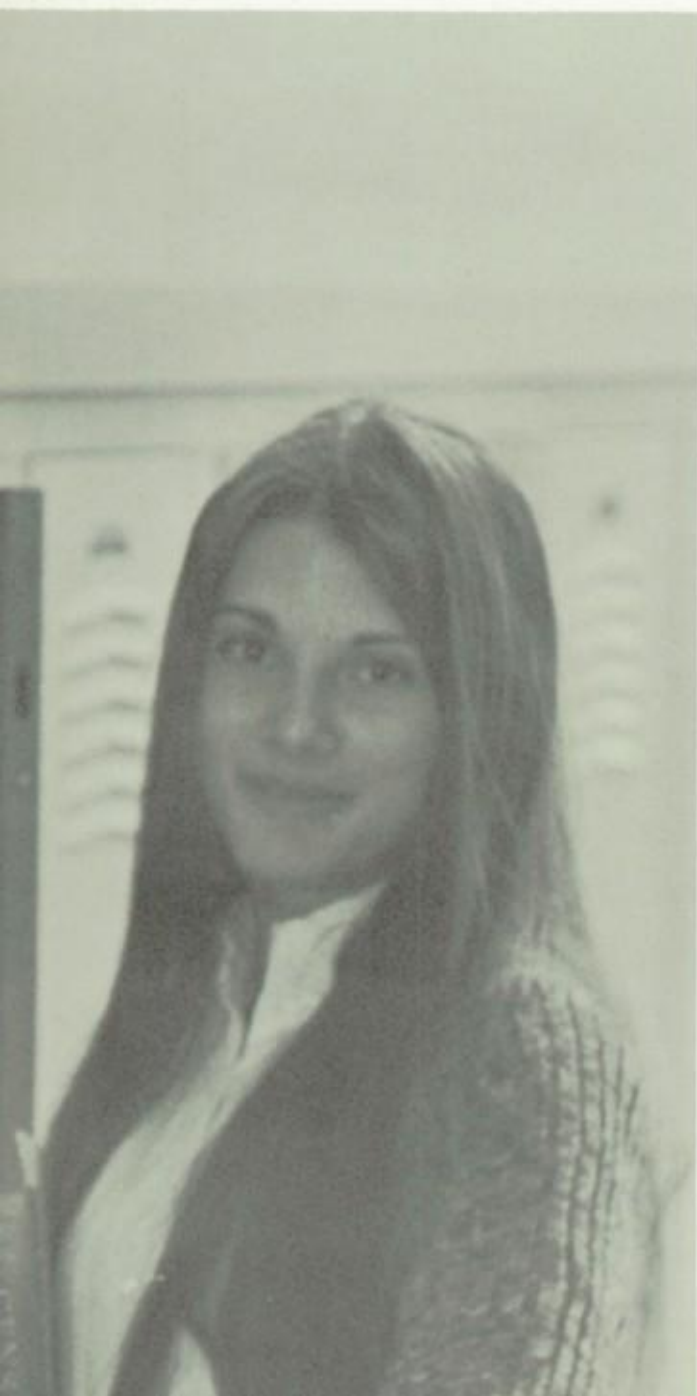

James Reeve

Sports, a good education, and a good job are all important in Jim's life. Among his memories of RHS are his close friends, Miss Wawrzossek, wrestling, and the football teams. His happiness was achieved this year with the winning football season, and now he is prepared to further his education.

Steve Reid

The days of the Blue Condition and block dances have past, but Steve continues to progress as a talented drummer. Gitte, Led Zeppelin, J.V., A.T., and R.T. are among his special memories. His greatest ambition is to make it in music. "Today the school gym — tomorrow the Fillmore!"

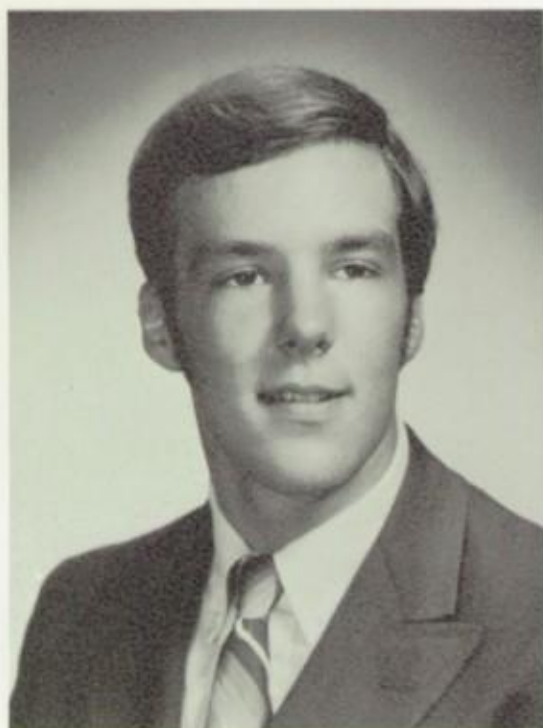

Jean A. Reinen

A majorette whose loves vary from "Room to Move", blue, and no. 6 to Zeppelin and the ocean, Jean is one who also enjoys sleeping late. Fun and life are her goals, yet as a Spanish major she will still remember "Howard", 8/1/70, Laurie, Neal, April 1970, Mr. Mura, and Wildwood with JL-AM-CC-Mf and Juniper Ave.

Katherine Ann Rennie

Full of fun, good humor, and personality, Katie desires to live life to its fullest. She will never forget summer '69 with S.F. and S.F., D.A., and J.S., Shirl, Raz, and color guard. Life would be wonderful for Katie if she could get an A in physics, ski down an empty trail, and never chew spearmint gum.

James E. Richardson

Fast cars and skiing are among Jim's favorites. To him, an eight mile ski run is true happiness. Wood I, Mr. Unterstein, and graduation will be his everlasting memories of Ramsey. Continuing to enjoy working with people, he next plans college, but he may possibly be found skiing in Europe in the near future.

Lucy Danielle Richardson

Relieved to have completed high school, Lucy hopes to do her best in what she undertakes, achieving what she wants in life. Her next goal is to become a secretary, yet as she works toward this, always enjoying people when they are themselves, she will remember Mr. Mura, Mr. Bedford, Mr. Aston, 2/23/69, 1/27/69, Rick, and Mark.

Michele Lynn Richardson

Teeming with fun and laughter, "Mike" is always happy on weekends, while listening to Joe Cocker, and with W.H. She is usually in good spirits unless she has to wait or get up early. Never will Michele forget times with club TUNA, summer '70, L.R., D.W., P.M., or J.S.

Patricia M. Rogers

A colorguard member, Patti has memories of summers at the shore, Cozy Nook 8/2/70 with J.K., "Hunter, . . . Carmine", "my sidekick", talks, and "elephant raincoat, newspaper rainhats". Liking "Traffic", skiing, surfing, and "Speed Racer", she also has enjoyed the personalities of Mr. Mura, Miss Derby, and Mr. Thomas. On the other hand, good-byes always bring her sorrow.

Tom Roland

Automotively interested, Tom expects someday to own a gas station. Of most importance is possessing cars, particularly a 427 Camaro. Along with automobiles, Mr. Baer and Dick have left imprints on his RHS years. Being able to stay alive and to dress as he pleases without outside influences are also important.

Karen Jeanette Rooney

Always on her quest for fun, "Melon's" adventures range from sailing off the Cape and surfing the easy waves to skiing a mile-long trail. Having enjoyed motorcycle rides, New York visits, Miss Wawrzossek, and C.S., "Rooney Cazood" also likes meeting people with a sense of humor and an ability to be sincere.

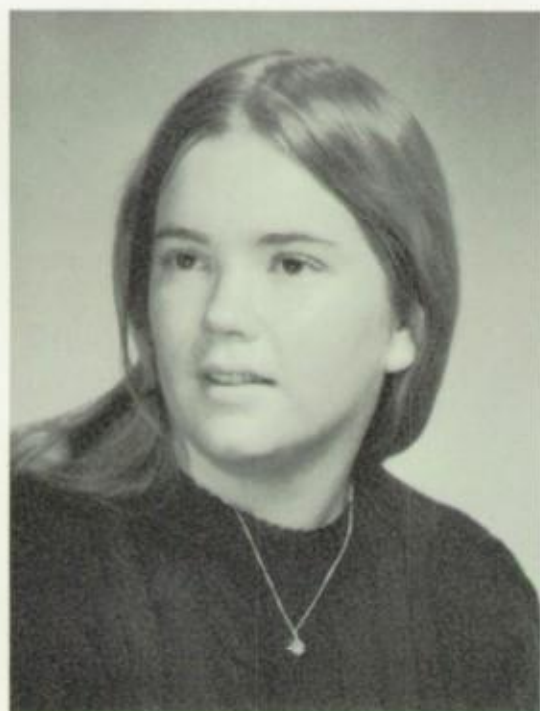

Kathie Jean Roswell

With her ready smile for all, Kathie has memories of the summer of 1968, 8/2/70, 9/4/70, and the weekend of 10/10/70. Along with her kaleidoscope of blue and red, she enjoys Mrs. O'Toole, Mrs. Grossman, and Mr. Herrmann. Kathie's happiness will be realized by attending secretarial school, marriage, and eight children.

Kenneth L. Rotella

Ken is a quiet boy, but under his silence lie deep thoughts. He believes that the best times he has are around other people who are happy. The class he enthusiastically enjoyed at RHS was his electronics course; therefore, he will remember it. In the future Ken would like to study agriculture.

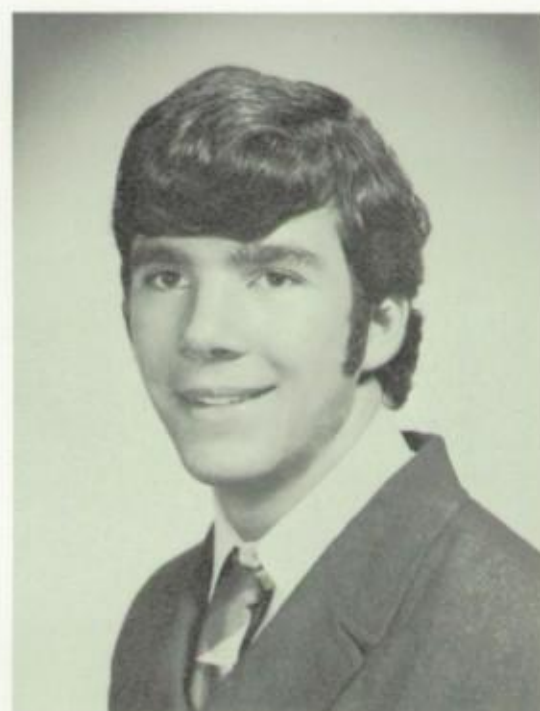

Patricia Mary Ruddy

With freedom and the desire to be happy by just living her life, Pat enjoys happy, forever-smiling faces. People, food, and the shore, as well as Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Molino, and Mr. Csencsits, are all valued by her. Her memories include the summers of '69 and '70, 1/1/70, and her four years at RHS.

Gail Irene Russell

Gail, having many friends and much fun, will always remember a certain leaky canoe, good times at Jay Gee, crossing the Ramapo during the flood, and swimming at a water hole in N.Y. Jethro Tull, Chinese food, camping, Miss Kruse, and the Fillmore are all liked.

Louis J. Russo

If Louis had a fast car that could beat a Mustang or Camaro, he would be satisfied. When hungry, his tastes yearn for pizza, French fries, a hamburger, or a juicy steak. College is planned, yet so are memories of Mr. Smith, Mr. Murray, Mrs. Corizzi, and math classes with Mr. Ufferfilge.

Lynne Carole Ryan

Possessing a profound spirit both serious and sparkling, Lynne values the little things in life that make it so special. The infinite variety of persons, their idiosyncrasies, attract her, as she is individualistic herself in clothes and character. Windy autumn days, cold grapes, her family, skiing, running along the beach, and waking up to the warm sun shining on her face find her spreading joy from within.

Janet Patricia Sacken

With a glow of sunshine, seriousness, sentimentality, and serenity, Janet lives a way of peace, a road of love. Seeing people free of inhibitions, people still capable of smiling and laughing, brings happy feelings, as do Central Park, building a snowman, raindrops, poetry, James Taylor, Thanksgiving, and velvet. Mrs. Dee, Mrs. Plevan, Mr. Ponchak, and 8/22/70 will be remembered as she heads for a linguistic career and a Swiss castle.

Edward A. Savariano

"Fat Man", who likes everybody, particularly Bullwinkle and Rocky, desires to stay at RHS another six years, but, more important, to become a dirigible. Ed enjoys steak, wine, cheese, red, white, and blue, Mrs. O'Neill, and Mr. Babbini. In his future life in Ramsey, 12/29/60, 8/1/70, and math class will stand out.

Bonnie Scott

With unique red hair and a pleasing smile, "Buns" travels through life liking Grand Funk, Sly, Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Molino, and especially B.F. Memories of the past include New Year's Eve '70, W,F,P, and S, 7/26/68, and "Breckie" with L. A major goal is to see P.H.

Roy A. Schwarz

Roy wishes to try and win all endeavors coming in the next twenty years. While attempting this, B.E., R.U., G.O., Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, and Mr. Davies will be remembered. College and affluence are hopefully planned by Roy, a lover of red, blue, steaks, and hero sandwiches.

Joanne Virginia Scott

Despite her small size and soft voice, Joanne stands out in any crowd. Whether in Ramsey, skiing, or on Cape Cod, it is impossible to overlook her sparkling eyes or her enjoyment in relating to others in fun, emotions, and thoughts. Joanne most desires inner contentment, knowing and enjoying who she is, and will always remember the times she found it — with Lynne, Jill, and during summer '70 with a whole family of other people.

Charles Seigh

Although Charles declares he would like to become more forward, his wonderful quality is his sincere interest in listening to what others say. Enjoying about people their love of other persons, he will always remember Mrs. Dee, Mr. Murray, chess club, Ricky and John, as he becomes trained in computer work, continuing to wear moderately loud clothes despite his quiet nature.

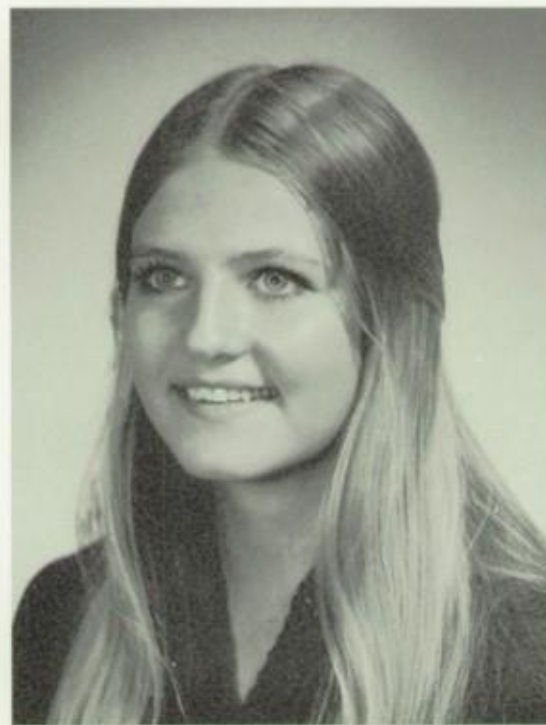

Kathi Anne Selmser

Charming and beautiful with her long blond hair, Kathy is one who is both serious and fun-loving. Friends weigh the most in importance to this girl who will always remember Happy Acres, West Hampton, the bicycle shop, J.M. and D.S. as well as Cape Cod, 10/19/68, trips with T.F., and her freshman year. She now heads for college and travel.

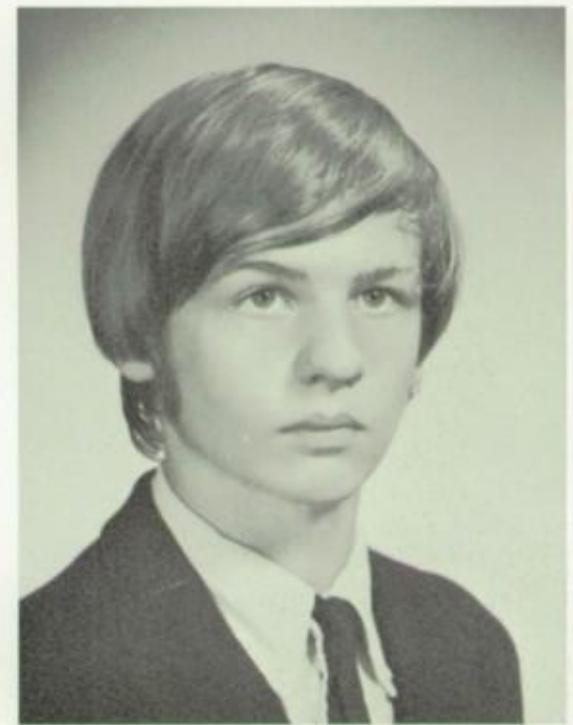

Kristi Serven

To love, to communicate and to understand as many people as she can, Krissmiss expresses herself as she wishes, liking the fact that everyone is different. Kristi remembers Nancy, Waterbrothers, and T.W.B. III. All things are created with a piece of life making them equal. By putting these pieces together, life becomes more meaningful.

Maryellen Shea

Forever clowning, "S.S." is a lover of grilled cheese as well as one who likes Johnny Pon and ten certain people. The shore with P.H.S., 4/3, wonder class, M.D., and falling will always be memories, as she plans a future including Boston, California, and the shore.

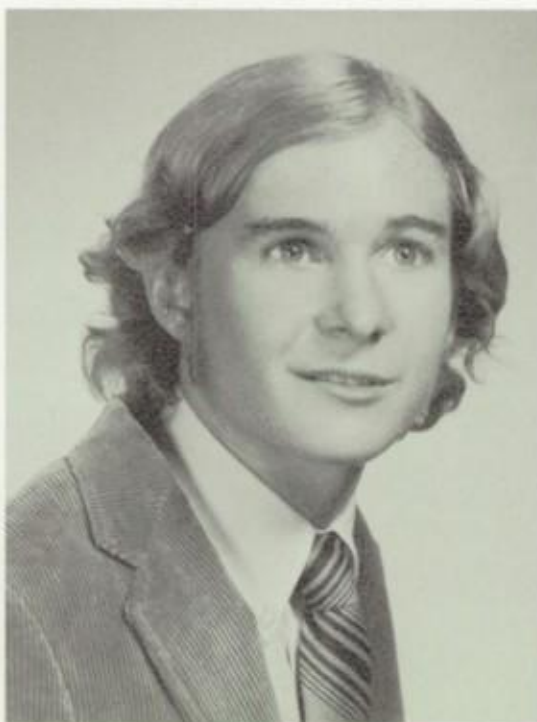

Bob Shortman

"Shorty" likes people who are honest and considerate. After taking a trip across the U.S. on his bike, he would like to own a car and a house. When Bob thinks back on his years at R.H.S., he will remember Mr. Baer, shop classes, the 3rd floor boys room, and Mr. DePuyt.

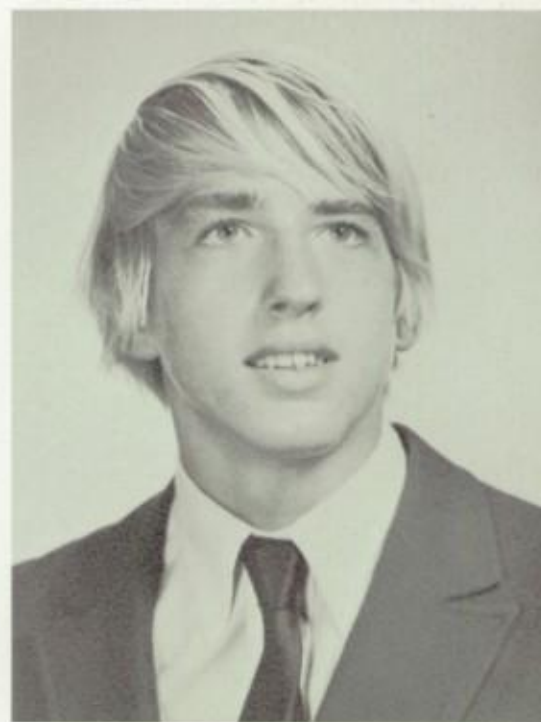

Darla Jean Sietsma

Always with a smile for everyone, Darla enjoys people with a sense of humor and sincerity. Included among her memories are 1/16/70, summer '70, Mr. Molino, and Mrs. O'Toole. Darla lives each day as it comes, striving to help others and make them happy. She finds contentment in being with friends.

James Anthony Sinardi

Being an unpredictable person, Jim has surprised many people by his actions. Known as "Stymie", he remembers "Our Gang" comedies, Mr. Smith, and happenings at Jeff's. Adventure is the key to Jim's future, as after graduation he plans to surf, mountain climb, and travel down the Colorado River in a kayak.

Craig Sloss

Craig is happiest when found in perfect form on an eight foot glassy surf. Although anxious to expand his life with college in Florida, of the past he will remember the "fort", the shore, Montauk Point, Miss Kruse, and Mr. Burr. Summer and the surf will always be important to him as he tries to live as a free individual, respecting other men as equals.

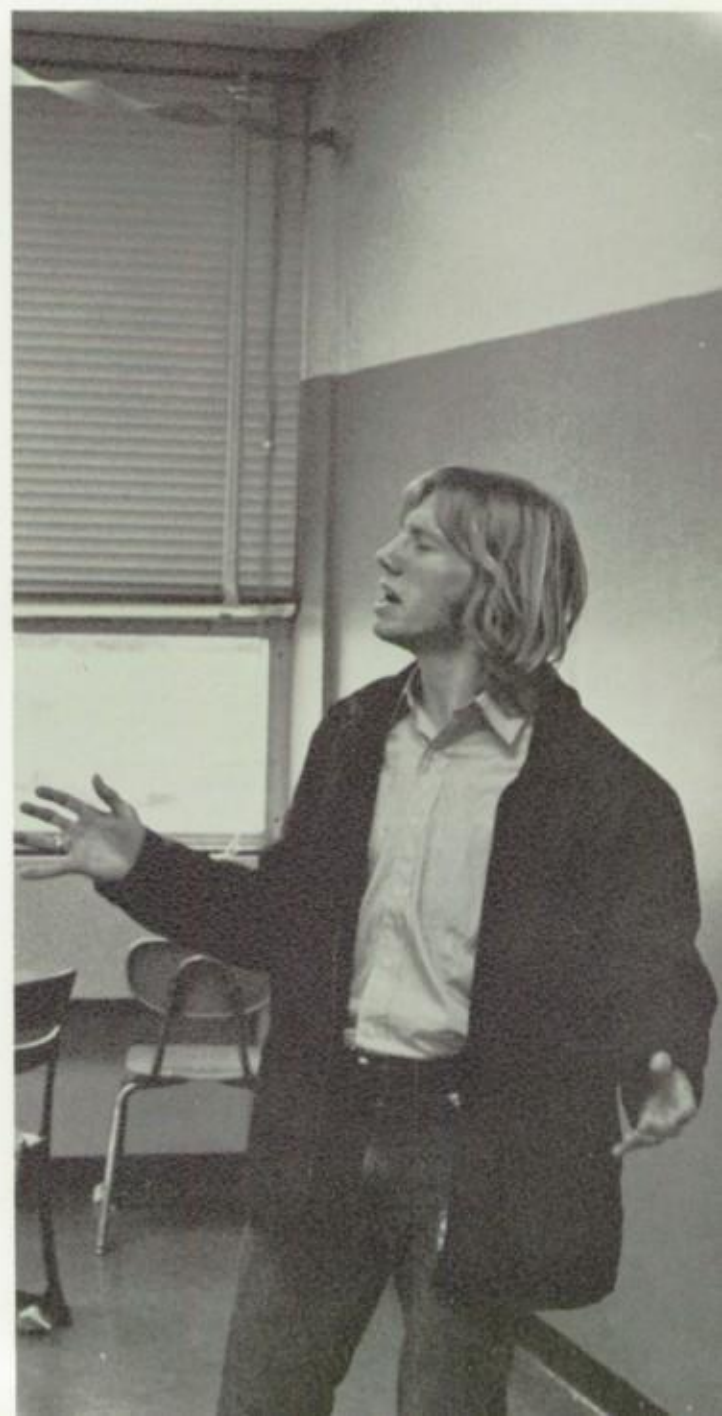

Susan Smiley

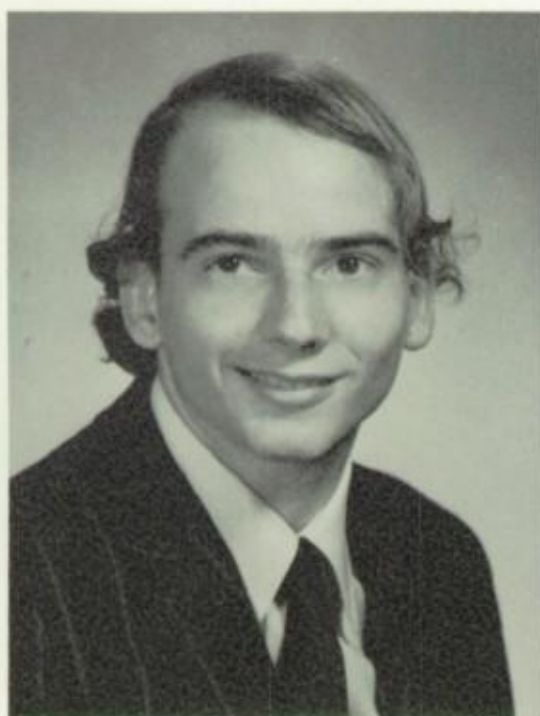

With a friendly, entertaining personality, "Sus" desires to make people happy. As she heads for social work and marriage, memories of Mahwah guys and parties, 9/7/70, and talks with Michael will not disappear. Rides with Debbie, Barb, and Maureen have been fun times, as have the city, Mr. Molino, and Miss Kruse.

Robin Anne Smith

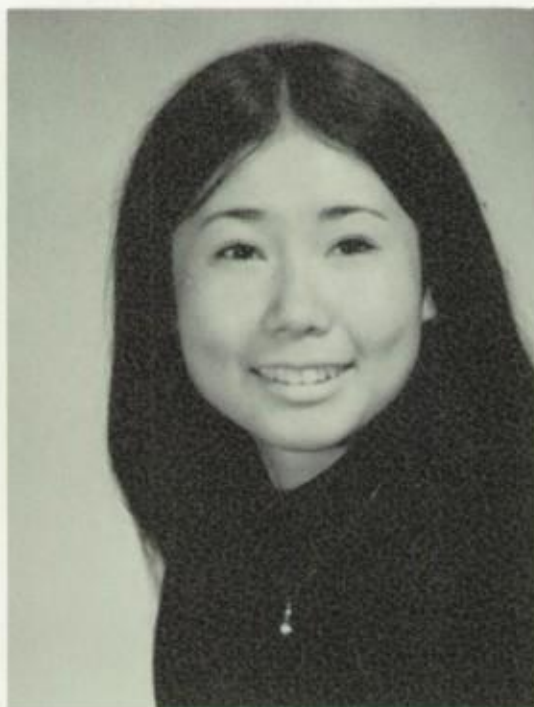

Light in build yet deep in feeling and full of both energy and spark, Robin enjoys being active while doing wild things — rollerskating in N.Y.C., surfing, skiing — anything that sounds like fun. She tries to do what she can to make others happy all of the time, for if everyone were happy, there would be peace.

Stephen G. Smith

Playing good basketball is a habit with Steve. Though his heart is on the court, thoughts of Mrs. Corizzi, Vermont, and Europeaning with Hal manage to enter his mind. Why? Maybe it is because then Steve saw what makes people individuals, or maybe because he was with people who accepted him as he was. In either case, Steve's resulting victory was too great to measure.

Kaneko Sohma

Overflowing with good spirit and sincerity, Connie likes living in the U.S.A. The first day at RHS, band camp, Mr. Wheeler, 8/28/70, and the waterfall in Wurtsboro, N.Y., are among her memories. Confidence, music, freedom, and to enjoy every happiness there is in life are most important to Connie.

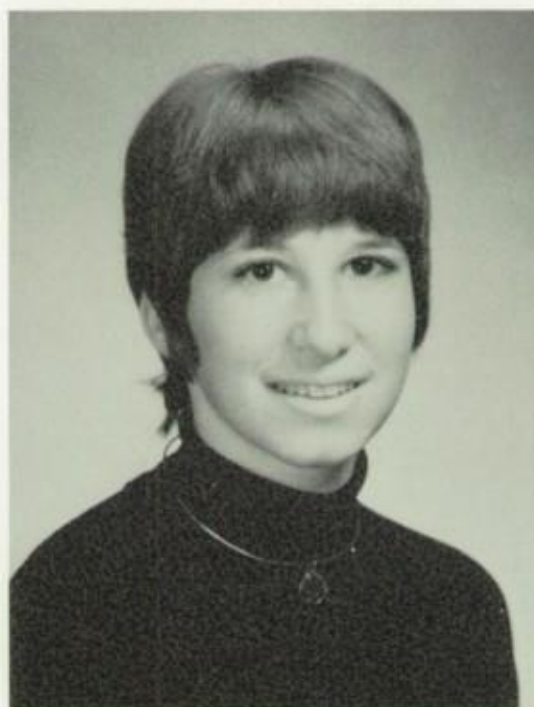

Leslie Charles Sommers

Sports minded, Les. enjoys people with a good sense of humor. "Live life day by day and don't let the past affect the present," says he who hopes to be more serious about his future. His memories include cross country, Mr. Molino, and Freshman Day. Ready for a change, he is looking forward to college.

Richard Starr

Speeding through life in his black Mustang, Rick won't pass up girls or an education. While either water or snow skiing, he vividly recalls his summer vacations and desires to beat a certain Saddle River Chevelle. Glad to be free of the Saddle River bus, Rich now intends to go to college.

Nicole Stehle

Always pert and wide-eyed, Nickie has enjoyed spaghetti, chocolate, working on cars, summer '69, and cold, snowy afternoons. Bob, Mr. Ponchak, Mrs. O'Toole, and Mr. Molino have brought times of happiness to Nickie, who wishes to live in Canada, marry the right one, grow a few inches, and become a secretary.

Henry F. Stokes

Hal's simple philosophy is to revert to natural ways. Enjoying people who make him feel comfortable, he will remember Mrs. Dee, Mr. Ackerman, winters in Lake Placid, England with Steve, the shore, parties, and other times with R.B. Planning to attend college in the Northeast, he hopes someday to be a wealthy bum.

Deborah Marie Storms

Carefree, but at the same time sincere, is the best way to describe Debbie, who feels friends are an important part of her life. The cabin, Janine, the winter, and Long Island are among the things she will always remember. After graduation from RHS, Debbie will feel even freer than she already is and will continue with college.

Patricia Susan Strasser

Pat, one who loves the peaceful beauty of her world, cherishes freedom, places, and the laughter, honesty, and sincerity of people. Prejudice, destruction, and death draw negative attitudes, while running through a daisy field at sunset, watching children, and communicating smiles create feelings of joy. Music of Richie Havens, Arlo Guthrie, and Judy Collins add to this serene sentiment that Pat loves.

Barbara Ann Stryker

Doing the things she enjoys with the people she likes pleases Barb, who will remember Art III, fourth lunch with Kevin, and driver's ed. as well as 1/12/68, shore '70 with C.B.D., left hand turns, guys in Ohio, and mustaches. She looks forward to a career in the fashion world and marriage.

Ray Szwec

True happiness will come to Ray at the end of this school year. Thinking back on his years here, he will always remember Mr. Ponchak's classes, both years. Mr. Calvano and Mr. Csencsits. After college he hopes to become successful in some business of his own.

Lizabeth Thompson Sullivan

Liz is the blue-eyed, vivacious blond whose sparkling, friendly smile amazed many in her sophomore year. Her world of happy memories includes Buddy, 11/22/69, lobster dinner, the shore, and visits with old friends. Liz desires to own a car, visit California, and remain with F.B. always.

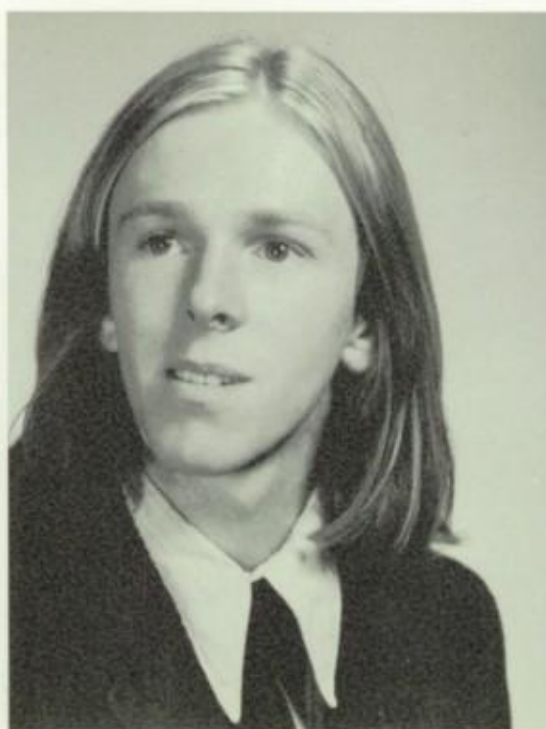

Maureen Elizabeth Tarrant

Comic and at times rambunctious, "Marita the Leader" is one to whom Buddy Miles, "Our House", spaghettios, and Mr. Ufferfilge bring happiness. Of high school experiences she will remember P.G., Norm, 7/3/70, Mahwah, nights out with the group, the shore, and Steak and Brew as she advances into her future.

Janice Carolyn Terhune

Often seen keeping statistics for the baseball team or at wrestling matches, Jan will always remember Paula, D.Q., the shore, Mr. Dayner, Mr. Ponchak, Darlington and "Dark Shadows". In the future she would like to find out why boys are afraid of her father. Her other plans include a career in elementary education.

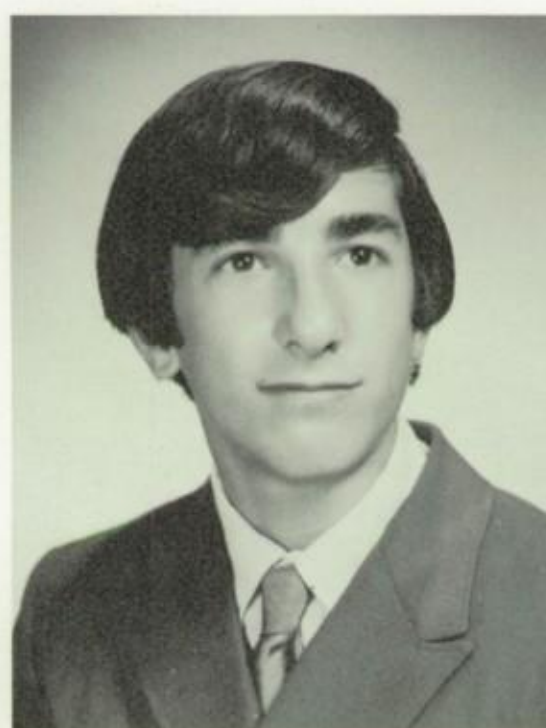

Scott Thomas

Thoughtful, intense, and energetic, Scott believes that books and learning from other people are necessary. He enjoys being able to share the humor of others and finds that happiness is having free time. "The only thing that is at last sacred is the integrity of our own mind."

Frances W. Tissiere

Cherishing fun and being free, doing what she feels is right, Fran enjoys people with a sense of humor. She will always remember Long Beach Island, the summers of '69 and '70, R.H., G.S., 9/9, 7/2, the trip to Haiti, Mr. Schell, Mr. Dayner, and driving with Liz in Wyckoff. Fran finds that happiness is having no problems to worry about.

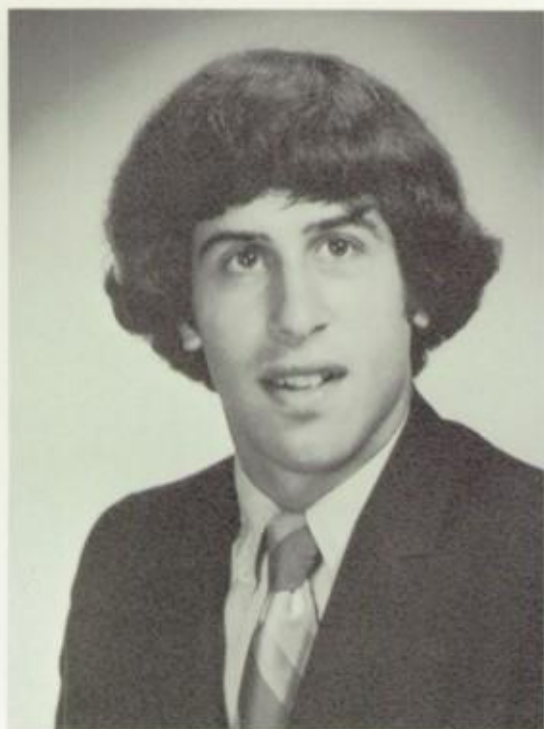

Jim Tolisano

Known for his wise opinions and authoritative voice, Jim is his own man, cherishing his freedom to act, to decide, to love life, and to become knowledgeable. Respecting those who accept others as they are, who avoid triviality, Jim feels that happiness is something that just occurs. His future is in journalism and broadcasting, yet he still will remember Mr. Van Dyke, The Ram and the plays.

Erica Tomanek

Honesty, friendliness, and a bright smile are several of Ricky's outstanding characteristics. Flying kites with Butch, hiking in the snow, good health, and happiness are all valued by her. As she goes on to art school and marriage, she will remember 10/2/69, Miss Kruse, R.R.A., sharing B.T.'s locker, and working in the dark room.

Barry Torres

Whether playing soccer, the guitar, talking or listening, Barry is a stimulating person to know. As he grows older and wiser he will experience as much as he can with people and music, striving to become a combination of Stills, Garcia and Clapton. His thoughts and memories will rest with Mrs. Dee, Monday Moons, G.M. and J.P.

Sheila Marie Trahey

Bubbling with sincerity and laughter, "She" values respect from others. Always remembering talks with Steve, Dan, and Chris, summer '70, bicycling with Lisa, "Lake Checks", Chris' party, K.H., and 5/18/68, she plans nursing school. Mr. Ponchak, Miss Miller, Mr. Polito, James Taylor, "Fire and Rain", and color guard will remain favorites.

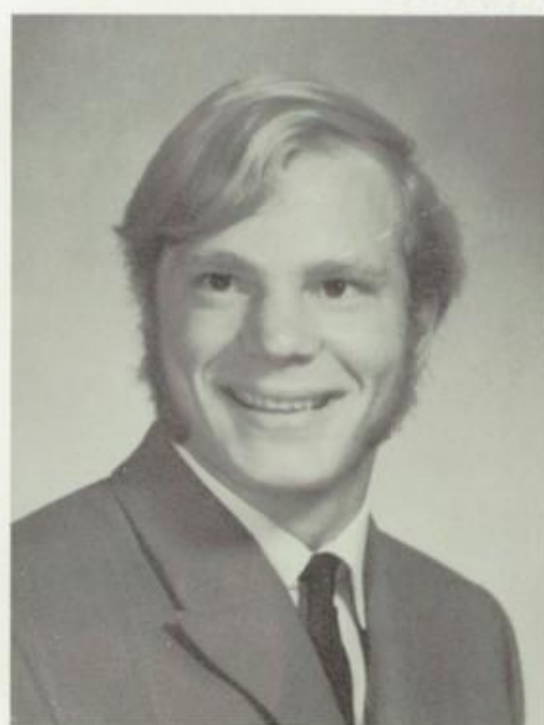

Jim D. Trifilio

A man who lives up to his beliefs and convictions, Jim finds great happiness in doing what he wants to do when he wants to do it. He'll never forget finding the book Walden in the halls of RHS. After high school he plans to go to college and hopes to find freedom and solitude.

Alan Trover

Alan, well known for his fantastic guitar playing, desires to play as many instruments as possible and to be a successful musician. He will always remember the Blue Condition, D.B., M.R., his summer cruise to Nassau, and good times at practices. Among his hopes is the wish that more people will open their eyes and look around themselves.

Robert A. Ueckerman

A man of winning ways and a pleasant countenance, "Uncle Bob" enjoys going to games, the Fillmore, girls, Lee Michaels, Mr. Burr, and Mr. U. Honest people who speak their minds are best liked. As he yearns to have a lifetime pass to the Fillmore and attend a Steve Miller concert with L.F., memories of RHS years will be 6/29/70, Wildwood, the "family", and R.K.'s parties.

Richard Van Derhoff

Rich, one who enjoys the friendliness found in people, passes his free time by skiing or wrestling. Some day during college or the rest of his life he may be seen with long hair and a beard, but definitely with his own car. In addition, there will be memories of Mr. Ufferfilge, July 8, 1970, and Mr. Murray.

William S. Van Horn

Personality plus, sincerity, and a winning way with people are assets "Willie Boy" just can't hide. Mr. Burr, Miss Wawrzosek, and Big Patti are memories, as well as his good times with friends. Cherishing an orderly world, he wouldn't mind getting lost at sea to escape confusion. With a definite way of his own and a ready laugh, Bill will surely succeed.

Debora Ann Van Iderstine

One who loves to sing, play, and hear music, Debbie cherishes the beauty of life found in nature, poetry, and in sharing experiences, problems, and friendship with others. "To be happy is to be free to walk on a quiet beach, to talk to the stars, to just look at the beauty of the world and see it remain unspoiled." Her future includes college, teaching, and remembrances of Mrs. Plevan, Mrs. Dee, and summer '70 at the Cape.

Carl Van Rooyen

With mischievous blue eyes and a distinguished, fun-loving laugh, Carl has a witty perception that will leave many puzzled but happy. Extremely wary of schedules and routines, he enjoys being with people—especially friends. Mom and apple pie. Plans for leaving the country await adventurous Carl upon graduation.

Ruthann Verduin

A bright-eyed majorette, Ruthann "lives for today", valuing the happiness and understanding in the world, along with the honesty and sincerity of its people. Beach Haven and the coffeehouse, Killington ski sojourns, and Miss Miller have all been good times. Happiness to her is being among a crowd of friends all enjoying each other, all rapping together.

Frank G. Villani

Often heard saying "Who me?", Frank desires to ride across the country on a bike. While peddling along, thoughts of Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Baer, Mr. Murray, 9/28/69, the shore '69 and '70, and 1/1/69 may interrupt his attention to the countryside. Lasagna, spaghetti, and steak will appease his hunger, especially after riding the California surf.

Richard Vitzthum

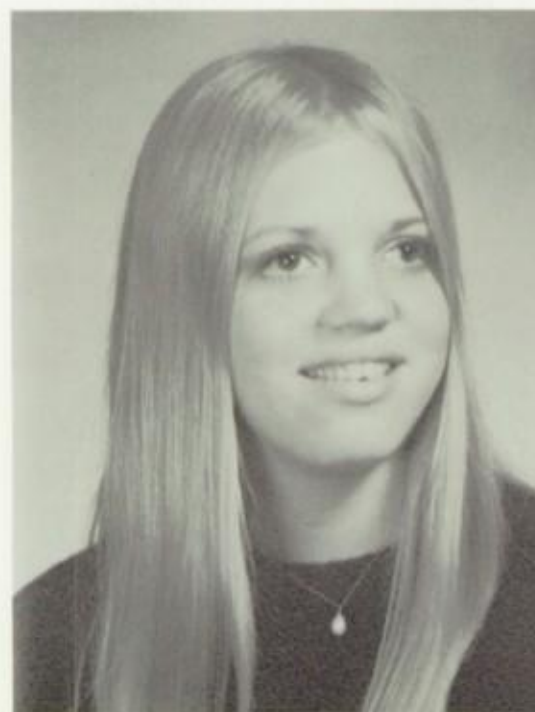

Kathleen D. Vogel

Sensitive and excitable, Vogel attempts to live each moment to its fullest, disregarding tomorrow. Enjoying traveling, be it tooting around with Woody, dunebuggying with J.C.M., or as a future social worker, she wants to see what life is all about. Someday winning the LeMans in a VW may bring happiness, but now a warm thumb, oatmeal cookies, and chocolate milk does the trick.

Charles F. Von Dreusche

In a quiet wood away from the hassles of life, one will find Charles content and silently dreaming. Back in school an ideal day would include classes with Mr. Ponchak, Mr. Burr, and an unforgettable fourth lunch. The quaint Pennsylvania country side and an autumn day exemplifies the beauty and happiness that Charles desires in life.

Nanci Waldron

Always bright, always fun, and always hungry, Nanci likes all food, Mr. Henderson, Mr. Thomas, Mrs. O'Toole, James and Livingston Taylor, and skiing. She best remembers shore trip '70 with J.H., P.H.S., Mahwah, 12/30/69, good times with B.R., M.T., J.H., and S.S., and Healy's apt. 2B. "This isn't for me!" or "I'm hungry" are frequent comments. Call her "Waw-Waw" but never call her "T.T".

Amie Walker

Summer '68 and '70 as well as Sue, Eileen, wheels, Frank, Chris and Atlantis have all meant much to Amie, who is active in her search for fun. Her future includes junior college, work as an airline stewardess, and perhaps fulfillment of a desire to revisit Drew and Princeton University, Boston, Connecticut, and New Hampshire.

Julia B. Weatherly

Hoping to experience much as she enjoys life, Julie loves talking and listening to people. Moving from Michigan was a step she will never forget when she enters college. Her happiness is in being around friends and in doing things she enjoys.

Jane R. Wicker

The feelings of others and being happy are important to "Wick", who enjoys being herself and knowing that everyone is unique. Jane will always remember Mr. Burr, K.A.F., sixth period biology, Miss Miller, tennis, and T.L.C. To this senior who desires to be more outgoing and to attend nursing school, happiness is walking in the rain.

Mary Louise Williams

Limber in dance, Mary is also sunny in disposition. With a liking for Mr. Thomas, Mr. "C", Mrs. Corizzi, hamburgers, and fried onion rings, she will remember the shore, D.Q., Ridgewood, "The Fish Express", Melinda's parties, Missy's p.j. party, and Chinese fire drills. College is in her future.

Tim Williams

Constantly on the go and searching for an adventure, "Timass" desires to travel around the United States on a motorcycle. Mrs. O'Toole, Mr. Murray, Mr. Babbini, 1/1/70, the New Year's party, and August of 1968 are among his memories. His travel throughout the U.S. will be frequently interrupted for a McDonald's hamburger or a juicy steak.

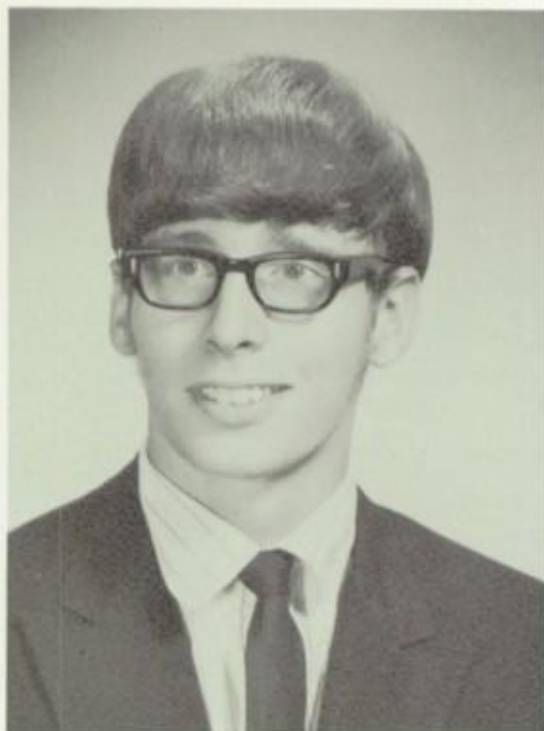

Susan S. Williamson

Originality and creativity are among Sue's greatest assets. She will always remember people, summer '69, and the Cape. Humor, talents, and individuality are what she finds most interesting about people. Listening to James Taylor or Gordon Lightfoot, skiing, traveling, and snow are all sources of her enjoyment. Sue's pleasing way is sure to make her a success in life.

Deborah Wilson

Shining with happiness and friendliness, Debbie likes pickles, popcorn, sleeping, and Pepper. She will always remember Beach Haven, Walton, summer '70, and P.A.P. Life would be a little easier for her without phonies, orders, and gym class. Debbie's ambitions are to travel and be happy.

Raymond L. Winslow

Once out of school, Ray wants to major in the arts of sleeping and doing nothing. Even though he is relieved in leaving RHS, he will always have pleasant dreams of Mr. Baer, Dad, auto, art, K,N,B, and R. If he is snoring too loudly, just bring in Tull, Cocker, or V.P. Agnew. Ray will gladly wake up for them.

Lorraine Wood

"Woody", full of fun and with a heart of gold, is successful with horses, sports, and music. Band camp, the Bossart crew, and the band exchange concerts will always be in her memory, as well as Miss Miller, Tyler's terrors, and "Fran". Woody's desire to enjoy life to it's fullest could be fulfilled by her 1970 Duster 340 or by racing in the Indy 500.

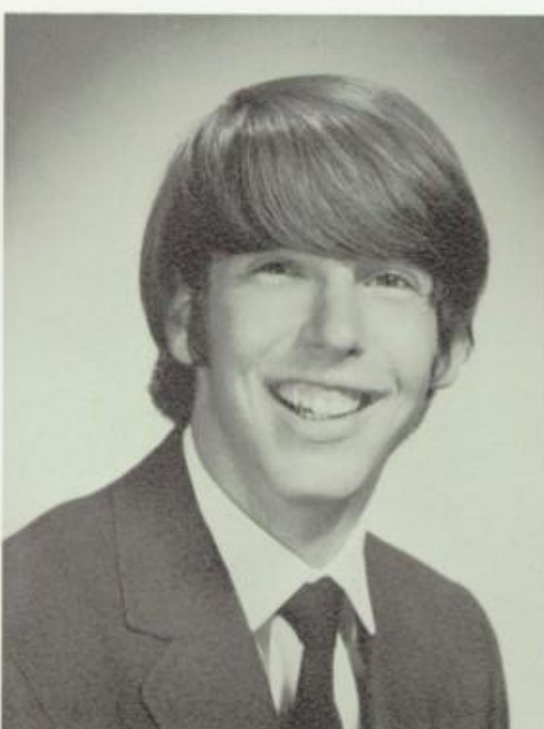

Judy Yee

Spontaneous, fun, and a true musician, Judy likes people when they are themselves. One who enjoys playing guitar, Richie Havens, "Woodstock", the Mets, and Afghan hounds, Judy will always remember Mr. Bednar, band, Brothers-in-Song '70, 7/26/70, Margie, and garbage pail no. 2, as she further develops her life around music. Indeed, music is soothing to her soul.

Stephanie Ann Zolto

Stephanie is a living example of the saying "good things come in small packages". Her memories of RHS include home economics, Mrs. Koch, Biology I with Mr. Winslow, freshman English, and tennis with Katie. Happiness is making Mike happy and driving in a certain 1931 Chrysler. Nursing school and growing are in her future.

Cy Zuckerman

Cy is definitely one of the faster guys around RHS, for he loves running and will never forget league meet '70 and 3:34.7. Friendly himself, he likes others to show this trait. His future includes college, remembering Mr. Ufferfilge, Mr. Molino, chemistry with Mr. Corizzi, and track, as well as owning a monkey.

CLASS HISTORY

With feelings of grandeur and glory, the class of '71 entered R.H.S., only to be reduced to the stature of frosh. Confusion and a sense of minuteness replaced the air of being, at last, high school students. The upperclassmen seemed so huge, all-knowing and menacing, especially on that famous day - the last of the freshmen days to be held at Ramsey. The dominance of our elders was certainly illustrated in the few mishaps that occurred.

We adjusted to our way of life, trudging up to the third floor lockers every day and fighting for survival on the lunch lines; and as we grew more at home, even we began to wonder what happened to the fountain in the courtyard. Life at high school was revitalized every now and then with hat days, sock days, blue and gold days, and clash days. Soon, we, too, got into the spirit.

On a snowy November night we were awed by the seniors in the performance of their play. Would we ever produce a play as successful as Take Her She's Mine? Yes, we had much to work for and much to anticipate; our high school years were just beginning.

With a year of experience and a set of exams behind us, we entered our second year in R.H.S., knowing what routes to take and feeling much more knowledgeable than the new year's freshmen. Yet we, too, became confused again by the novel rotating schedule. How wonderful it felt to miss a class every six days! Although we may have wished to be elsewhere, the newly painted orange, yellow, and blue lockers also added some cheerfulness to going to class, and a new soda machine quenched our thirst during free study periods.

This was the year of big-scale productions. The football team was again outstanding in the defeat column, while the basketball team's record was 15:7. The English department embarked on mass field trips, carting hundreds of students to various plays and movies. In the spring the band sold chocolate bars and took a subsequent trip to Delaware. The administration proved to be quite liberal, permitting the wearing of shorts as well as shoes without socks.

Then we became upperclassmen, entering our busiest and perhaps most important year of high school. For some, it was a year of testing - PSAT's, National Merits, SAT's, and Achievements, a year when more could be determined about our future, while for others it was a time to begin searching out a position in the working world. It was also a year to earn money for the class. Led by Al Lewitz (president), Hal Stokes (vice president), Nancy Portner (secretary), Sue Asch (treasurer), and our advisor Miss Grillo, we conducted the customary Christmas card sale. Problems were plentiful, yet as always, we pulled through with a profit. Prom bids were also sold, and the gala affair was held in the spring to the theme of Aquarius. The outstanding success of the year, however, was the production of our play, Don't Drink the Water. So hilarious were Mama Fillmore and Papa Corso that the near-record audience reeled with laughter throughout the play. All doubts vanished for those who wondered whether we could have a great dramatic success.

This was also a year of new freedoms and different restraints. Last period studies were cherished, for then we were free to leave school early. Towards winter, we were given the privilege of sleeping later if our study fell first in the morning. We were finally able to wear pants to school; winters became warmer, and school more relaxed. Some of us acquired our wheels of freedom, adding to the upperclassmen status brought on by our rings.

After such a year the class was growing closer together, looking forward to the chance as seniors to rule the school, repeating a winning basketball season and continuing our winning football streak. Perhaps luck was with us, for we had managed victory in that final football game against Mahwah.

How great it felt to be seniors at last, especially in a year of football success, yet how confusing and tormenting at times to think that in less than a year we would all be heading in different directions. For many it was a time of questioning and wondering, a time to ready for the commencement of our new lives. Graduation and all its details had to be arranged, however, and so, under the guidance of Scott Ferres, Hal Stokes, Nancy Portner, and Sheila Trahey, we attempted to earn money to finance the yearbook and other June expenses. Again the class showed its talents in dramatics, as Kevin Cassidy led the cast of Enter Laughing to an outstanding success.

It took much change, many new experiences, plus encounters with varying philosophies and attitudes to reach this point in maturity. Now as we realize our commencement, we have an infinite number of new experiences, people, and thoughts ahead of us. As we continue to grow as individuals, we will always remember R.H.S. as a meaningful and memorable part of our lives.

LAUGHING

People say that lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place, but here's a case for the books. Back on some forgotten date in 1963, ENTER LAUGHING opened on Broadway to rave reviews, TIME'S "Broad, boisterous fun" label being a good example.

Seven years later on December 11, 1970 ENTER LAUGHING opened again, but this time it didn't appear on Broadway. It appeared on Main St., Ramsey as the RHS Senior Class Play, and was a fantastic success. It saw a 1200 seat capacity auditorium filled to standing room only. It saw a profit of $800; a height rarely reached in RHS theater. Mrs. Villie Corizzi, Senior Class Advisor, saw such a stupendous achievement that she said, "It was a wonderfully delightful and charming comedy. I truly enjoyed it."

And why not? ENTER LAUGHING'S cast had Broadway quality actors who provided their audience with such an off-Broadway show, that hit Broadway shows played before half-filled theaters.

FIDDLER'S ROOF collapsed.

APPLAUSE got booed.

HAIR went bald.

THE ME NOBODY KNOWS remained unknown.

And HELLO DOLLY waved Bye-Bye.

Eat your heart out Ethel Merman.

This year the Student Council undertook the task of accomplishing projects that would be new and beneficial to the students. The traditional Teacher Appreciation Week, dance and movies were in addition to the experimenting with ashtrays in the laboratories and the sponsoring of an A.C.L.U. lawyer to speak with the students and answer their questions on legal matters.

Laura Fillmore in Austria

We weren't given much for this —
 We've left our lives at home,
 Our family, friends, security aren't here; we chose to roam.
 We've only got the little things that can't be stuffed on shelves, we left behind important things and only brought ourselves.
 The lighter things they let us keep,
 we brought a year's supply
 of things that last eleven months,
 of things we couldn't buy.
 A pair of eyes didn't weigh too much,
 but yet they can conceive
 the tallest tree that's stroked with sun, and whispers in her leaves,
 the water rushing endlessly
 to its secret destination.
 "There's no beginning, Life, no end!"
 it cries in exultation.
 Eyes that see the shrivelled face
 of youth now robbed by age,
 that's wrinkled more by Life than Time,
 by Love, by Sorrow, Rage,
 Eyes that marvel at a church
 and wonder at a child,
 Behold the beauty of the land
 in it's majesty grown wild.
 We only brought a pair of ears
 to hear the German tongue;
 to listen when life cries aloud
 and weep when pain is sung.
 There's something else we brought along that can't be seen or weighed.
 It thrives upon a thing called Life
 and drinks it every day.
 Magic powers held in here
 that make you cry or groan when you long for friends' security and you find yourself alone.
 It dreams the dreams of hopeful youth and fabricates the goals.
 It wonders, stabs, and spreads in Love;
 I think it's called the soul.
 We left at home important things but someday we shall see that Love is people anywhere and Happiness is free!

*Bubbling with energy and ambitious ideas, we did start.
Bright smiles, happy faces, rested eyes, no wrinkles.
But you'll soon see, said Mr. Dayner, with a shake of his head.
It's a lot of work, a lot of torment, a lot of disappointment, a lot of struggles.
And so it was.*

*Our new life engulfed us —
The power of the vote, the struggle of decision, the conflict of argument.
All in our new home away from home — the yearbook room —
A scene of laughter, violence, tears, thought, exultation, and sleep.*

*Indeed it was a full-time job.
Forget the homework! Blurbs to write, copy to do,
pages to lay out.
Deadline! Deadline! Deadline!
And so another all-day, all-night meeting.
Neither power failures nor snow could stop us.*

*The wrinkles became evident; the eyes grew dark,
Yet the thrill of achievement became precious.*

*The weariness reached us all, but we pushed on.
"Perfection" was our slogan, and thus we strived,
Growing closer to each other in the process,
For now we skied, worked, and argued together.*

*And then the pages started coming back.
Excitement grew. The feeling of accomplishment renewed our vigor.
Eyes began to sparkle again and faces removed their downcast expressions.
Yes, we actually had created pages, sections, a whole book!*

Springtime brought forth a new dawn of relative peace and harmony.

*We all knew each other well by now.
Tempers began to ease, and laughter returned.
Would it matter if we were creamed by the class of '71?
It had been a lot of work, a lot of torment, a lot of disappointments, and a lot of struggles,
But also a lot of learning, a lot of living, a lot of interacting with one another, and a lot of thrills and joys of accomplishment.
Indeed, a chapter in our lives.*

A black and white photograph of a sunlit forest path. The sun is shining through the dense canopy of trees, creating a bright, hazy glow in the upper left quadrant. Sunbeams (crepuscular rays) are visible, filtering through the leaves and branches. The path is covered with fallen leaves and branches, and the overall atmosphere is serene and contemplative.

*This marks the closing of one chapter in our lives.
The close of this chapter, the start of a new one.
We have reached an end, but it is truly only a beginning.
A book of life which contains numerous pages and unlimited possibilities.
Fill your book the best you know how, value each page and do not become trapped in one chapter.
Each page is a reflection of the previous one, each blank page open for new things.
When your story does come to an end, look back and know that you have left an imprint.*
